

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

Subscription $1 Per Year, in Advance.

"I Come, the Herald of a Noisy World, the News of All Nations Lumbering at My Back."

All Kinds Job Printing Neatly Executed.

41st YEAR.

HARTFORD, KY., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 1915.

NO. 12

WARM FIGHT OVER THE DARDANELLES

Seven-Hour Conflict Was Without Profit.

THE ALLIES GAINED NOTHING

But Lost Heavily—Turks Defended Forts With Effective Gun Fire.

FIGHT ON FRONTS CONTINUES

Berlin, March 22 (via London). The correspondent at Constantinople of the Wolff Bureau telegraphed today a description of the fighting at the Dardanelles on Thursday, March 18, in which the French battleship Bouvet and two British battleships were sent to the bottom. There follows an abridgment of the correspondent's story of this engagement:

The efforts of the Allies to force the straits of the Dardanelles reached their climax in an artillery duel on Thursday, March 18, which lasted seven hours. The entire atmosphere around the Turkish forts was darkened by clouds of smoke from exploding shells and quantities of earth thrown into the air by the projectiles of the French and British warships. The earth trembled for miles around.

The Allies entered the straits at 11:30 o'clock in the morning and shelled the town of Chanak Kale. Two French and five British warships took part in the beginning. This engagement reached its climax at 1:30 o'clock, when the fire of the Allies was concentrated upon Fort Hamidieh and the adjacent fortified positions.

The attack of modern marine artillery upon the strong land forts presented an interesting as well as terrifying spectacle. At times the forts were completely enveloped in smoke. At 2 o'clock the Allies changed their tactics and concentrated their fire upon individual batteries, but it was evident that they found difficulty in getting the range. Many of their shells fell short, casting up pillars of water, or went over the forts to explode in the town.

At 3:15 o'clock, when the bombardment was at its hottest, the French battleship Bouvet was seen to be sinking at the stern. A moment later her bows swung clear of the water and she was going down. Roaring cheers from the Turkish garrisons and forts greeted this sight. Torpedo boats, and other craft of the Allies hurried to the rescue, but they were successful in saving only a few men.

Besides having been struck by a mine the Bouvet was severely damaged above the water line by shell fire. One projectile struck her forward deck. A mast also was shot away and hung overboard. It could be seen that the Bouvet, when she sunk, was endeavoring to gain the mouth of the straits. This, however, was difficult, owing apparently to the fact that her machinery had been damaged.

Shortly after the sinking of the Bouvet a British ship was struck on the deck squarely amidships and compelled to withdraw from the fight. Then another British vessel was badly damaged, and at 3:45 o'clock was seen to retire under a terrific fire from the Turkish battery. This vessel ran in toward the shore. For a full hour the Allies tried to protect her with their guns, but it was apparent that she was destined for destruction. Eight effective hits showed the hopelessness of the situation for this vessel. She then withdrew toward the mouth of the Dardanelles, which she reached in a few minutes under a hail of shells. The forts continued firing until the Allies were out of range.

This was the first day when the warships attacking the Dardanelles kept within range of the Turkish guns for any considerable length of time. The result for them was terrible, owing to the excellent marksmanship from the Turkish batteries. The Allies fired on this day 2,000 shells without silencing one shore battery. The result has inspired the Turks with confidence and they are looking forward to further engagements with calm assurance.

Fighting On Both Fronts.

Although fighting of more or less intensity is always in progress along the Eastern and Western fronts there have been no very important operations during the last few days. The Germans claim small successes against the British near St. Eloi and against the French at Notre Dame de Lorette, north of Arras and to have repulsed several French attacks in Champagne, the Argonne forest and the Vosges. But the French communication, issued during the day, says that nothing of sufficient importance to report has happened.

In North Poland there have been several affairs of the outposts, but neither army apparently is attempting any large operations while the ground remains soft, unless the Russian movement turns out to be more important than it at present appears to be—namely, a cavalry raid.

JAS. MABE CELEBRATES HIS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Upton, Ky., March 19.—James Mabe, the oldest citizen of Hardin county, celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Bowles. Mr. Mabe was born March 3, 1815, in Stokes county, North Carolina. He moved to Hart county before the Civil War and has for the past few years made his home with his children here. He has six children, thirty-seven grandchildren and twenty-one great-grandchildren.

A dinner party was given in his honor, at which about 300 guests were present. An interesting feature of the day was a fox chase, which he witnessed with as much enthusiasm as in his younger days when it was his greatest sport.

He is of a most remarkable disposition and can walk a mile without tiring. He is heard about the place whistling like a boy and is always cheerful. His picture on the old family horse was taken on his 100th birthday.

DEATH OF MR. B. F. BEARD AT HARDINSBURG HOME

Hardinsburg, Ky., March 20.—At the ripe age of eighty-seven years, three months and nineteen days, B. F. Beard died yesterday morning at the residence of his son, M. D. Beard.

His last illness covered a period of about six weeks. Until then he pursued his usual daily routine of life and was active in every particular. Mr. Beard was conspicuous as a successful business man, which is attested by the large mercantile firm of B. F. Beard & Co., and the Bank of Hardinsburg and Trust Company, of which he was the founder and president from its inception in 1890 to his death.

As a tobaccoist he was one of the extensive handlers of that product of the entire State, but for the past several years he had devoted himself exclusively to his banking business, and his son, M. D. Beard, has maintained and enlarged the mercantile business.

He leaves four children, Mrs. Allen Edelin, of Burgin; C. L. P. M. and M. D. Beard, all of this town.

FROLIC SOME ORDER OF "LITTLE YELLOW DOGS"

The Madisonville Hustler says: The Illustrous Order Little Yellow Dogs was launched here with twenty members Tuesday night, Dr. E. B. Hardin is the keeper of the kennel; Robert Kincheloe, scratcher; and Roy Wilson is the yelper. This is kennel 8. The order originated in the State of Missouri. This is the newest order in this part of the State and is on for frolic and high time. The meeting was one of interest and the keeper of the kennel had a hard time with the young pups and much yelping was done when the animals went through the initiatory work.

LOTS OF PLEASURE

Taking pictures with an Eastman. A big line of Kodaks and Supplies just in, also Watches and Jewelry at the very lowest prices. See us before ordering and save money.

J. B. TAPPAN,
Jeweler & Optician.

1014

MILLINERY

At my home at Sulphur Springs. Will be in Hartford every Monday to take orders, returning them the following Saturday. Headquarters at Hub Clothing Co. 9tf
MRS. SARA C. SMITH.

HIGHWAYS TO CONNECT STATE COUNTY SEATS

Farmers From Four Counties To Attend Meeting For This Purpose.

The Owensboro Inquirer says: Of all the sentiment now extant in Kentucky perhaps none is growing as rapidly, or is becoming so State-wide, as that of good roads. Especially the sentiment for an inter-county seat system of highways, which, when completed, will connect the county seats of every county in Kentucky with those of adjoining counties. The Chamber of Commerce is now inaugurating a movement for the purpose of giving the citizens of Davies and adjoining counties full information as to how such connecting highways may be secured, and as to the real benefits that will be derived therefrom, with the view of stimulating and strengthening the interest already manifested by so many farmers and business men in this section in this inter-county seat highway movement.

This information campaign will be launched next Saturday afternoon, March 27th, at a mass meeting of the citizens of Davies, McLean, Ohio and Hancock counties, to be held in the Circuit Court room of the court house in Owensboro, at 1:30 o'clock. Mr. Robert C. Terrell, commissioner of roads for Kentucky, will be the speaker. Mr. Terrell is one of the best informed men in Kentucky on the question of roads, is an interesting speaker, and will inform his hearers fully as to the method of constructing these inter-county seat highways, and as to how much State and national aid can be secured for each county to assist in the construction of these highways. Sixty-three counties in Kentucky, including Davies and Ohio, have already made application for aid from the State and National Government.

Commercially, it is generally conceded, nothing is of so much importance to the citizens of this section, as well as the whole of Kentucky, as good roads, and every citizen of this entire section is expected to enter enthusiastically into this movement and leave nothing undone to accomplish the end desired. Let "good roads" be the slogan until good roads are secured and comfort and prosperity will follow. You are invited by the Chamber of Commerce, so come and bring your neighbor to the initial meeting next Saturday.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN GATHER IN HOPKINS

Madisonville, Ky., March 19.—A large crowd attended the joint meeting of farmers and business men here to-day in the interest of better farming and good roads. Prof. John H. Carmody, of the Kentucky Experiment Station at Lexington, gave an illustrated lecture on the care of fruit trees and G. B. Nelson, State organizer of the Boys' Corn Club movement, addressed the members of the clubs in this county. Several new names were added to the list. M. O. Hughes, who was to address the local tobacco growers, was unable to attend.

Robert E. Woods, of Louisville, president of the State Good Roads Association, made a splendid address in behalf of the $300,000 bond issue which is to be voted on May 8. Mr. Woods' address was the beginning of the active campaign to be started immediately. He explained in detail the State aid law passed by the last Legislature and told of the work other counties were doing toward securing better roads. He was asked many questions during his talk, which were answered satisfactorily to all.

A. S. OF E. NOTICE.

All local secretaries of Ohio county are urged to make a report to the county and State secretaries immediately, as the State board wants to make arrangements for the State meeting as soon as possible and this meeting can't be held until local secretaries report. So please make your report at once.

H. M. PIRTLE,
County Sec'y. and Member of State Board.

As a general thing opportunity makes the man only when the man makes the opportunity.

THE GOVERNMENT TO AID IN ROAD BUILDING

Four U. S. Highway Engineers
Will Be Sent to Kentucky
To Assist.

Frankfort, Ky., March 20.—Gov. McCreary and Commissioner of Roads R. C. Terrell have returned from Washington, much pleased with the success of their trip to ask for Federal aid in road construction in Kentucky this year.

Commissioner Terrell said the Department of Agriculture consented to detail four highway engineers for duty in Kentucky, one of whom will arrive here Monday. They will be assigned to designated territories, each probably being given ten counties to travel over. They will supervise the road construction under the State-aid plan for the State Department of Roads, and give advice to county engineers, just as Government farm demonstrators aid the agriculturists.

Besides these four field men assigned to the State, Gov. McCreary and Commissioner Terrell secured permission to send the excess bridge work to the Bureau of Highways, Washington. All bridges costing more than $500 are built under plans and specifications furnished by the Commissioner of Roads, and this work, in addition to the highway plans under State aid, will crowd the office here. The work which cannot be got out in this office without hampering its other activities will be sent to Washington. Commissioner Terrell said this will save his office the expense of three extra engineers.

CENTRAL CITY'S OLDEST HOTEL BURNED FRIDAY

Central City, Ky., March 20.—The Commercial hotel, the oldest hotel and perhaps the oldest building in the town, burned Friday night, the origin of the fire being unknown. For 35 years it has stood in the southeast corner of the crossing of the Illinois Central and L. and N. railroads and was a landmark. For many years it was successfully conducted by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Paxton, both of whom are now dead. At the time of the fire it was the property of Mr. Willis, of Rumsey. The first alarm was sounded about 9 o'clock in the evening, and the volunteer fire department was soon on the scene.

It was soon under control and supposed to have been completely extinguished, but the flames had crept up between the ceiling and the metal roof, and when the department reached the scene of the fire the second time, it was seen the building was doomed. For two hours it burned and was the most spectacular fire ever seen here for the reason that the house, being iron-bound and recently covered with this metal, was much stronger than the remainder of the house and stood a red-hot box while the flames poured out the doors and windows. Fully 2,000 people stood around while the old hotel became a thing of the past.

EARLY BIRDS AMONG CANDIDATES TO FILE

Frankfort, Ky., March 20.—Loving W. Gaines, of Trenton, editor of the Todd County Progress, was the second candidate in the State primary to file his petition to get his name on the ballot. Justus O. Carson, of Morgantown, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Treasurer, was the first. Mr. Gaines filed his petition with Cecil Vansant, Assistant Secretary of State. He is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor, for which Judge James Black, of Barbourville, and former Senator E. W. Utley, of Lyon county, are announced candidates. Only two petitions have been filed, as the entries will not close for three months.

WAR MUST END IN JULY, OWING TO EXHAUSTION

London, March 20.—Edgar Crammond, the financial writer, in a paper read before the Royal Statistical society, said that in his opinion, the war must end in July through the exhaustion of some of the belligerents.

Mr. Crammond estimates the total cost of the war to the end of July as $16,980,000,000, and the total economic loss through damage to property and other direct and indirect losses at $45,740,000,000. He estimates that Great Britain alone will spend up to the end of July $2,540,000,000.

The Times, commenting on Mr. Crammond's figures, thinks he takes an exaggerated view, although he possesses facts which entitle his opinion to respect. The Times points out that Premier Asquith's estimate of Great Britain's expenditures during the same period was only $2,500,000,000, but adds:

"This certainly now appears too low, even if Mr. Crammond's estimate is too high, and it already is believed in financial quarters that the government will be obliged to have recourse to a new war loan sooner than was anticipated, probably in the month of May."

WELL KNOWN STEAMBOAT CAPTAIN NOW NO MORE

The Bowling Green Messenger of Thursday says:

A telephone message was received in Bowling Green announcing the death of Captain Elmore W. Bewley, of the steamer Bowling Green, which runs from Evansville to Bowling Green, which occurred Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock at his home at Rumsey, McLean county, after an illness of only a few days of pneumonia. He contracted a severe case of la grippe on Wednesday last while on his boat, which developed into pneumonia and the end came rapidly.

Captain Bewley was born in Brandenburg, in Meade county, sixty-six years ago, and moved to Rumsey, when a boy seventeen years old, when he was made second clerk on the Falls City, which ran from Bowling Green to Louisville. His next promotion was first clerk on the old steamer Evansville, which belonged to the Green River Navigation Company, and he was later made first clerk on the steamer Bowling Green, and his last position, which he held until his death, was captain of the Bowling Green.

SHIP YARDS BOOMING— A REMARKABLE CHANGE

The most remarkable change since the time of the Napoleonic war has come suddenly in the American ship-building industry. The last day of December, 1914, closed one of the poorest years the American ship yards have had in a decade. To-day every ship-building concern from Bath, Me., down to Newport News, in Virginia, is working to its fullest capacity, says the New Republic.

One of the largest companies has orders sufficient to keep 6,000 men employed full time for two to three years. Contracts have been closed for forty-eight ocean vessels, and negotiations are pending for sixty more. Prices have been advanced 15 per cent, although that fact is not significant. A British company has placed an order for the building of two ships in an American yard, a thing never heard of before, and is likely to order two more.

Apparently the American merchant marine has entered upon another period of expansion. The ships ordered and those for which marine architects are now drawing plans, embrace not only passenger vessels for the coastwise trade, but freighters for the Pacific and South American service, big cargo carriers for the trans-atlantic business and oil tankers to go anywhere and everywhere.

FATHER BRANDS BABE WITH RED-HOT 50c PIECE

Cleveland, O., March 20.—Because his eighteen-months-old baby ran away from home and for fear that he might not be identified if he should run away again, William Richard, 27 years old, branded the child with a red-hot fifty-cent piece, he said in Police Court to-day.

Doctors say the boy will bear the brand on his right hip all his life. Richard was arrested on a charge of assault and battery and was sentenced to three months in the workhouse. He formerly was a professional wrestler.

For Sale.

My farm on the Hartford and Sulphur Springs road, quarter of a mile north-east of the oil well. This farm is not leased. Contains 82 acres—45 acres in cultivation, the remainder in woods—4-room house and outbuildings. Plenty of good soft water and a good orchard.

For particulars see L. T. Barnes, Beaver Dam, Ky.

FUSION IS DEALT VERY HARD BLOW

Important Opinion By The Court Of Appeals.

RIGHT OF PARTY COMMITTEES

To Fill Vacancies Fixed—
Candidates Must Adhere To One Party.

A CASE FROM KNOTT COUNTY

Frankfort, Ky., March 19.—The last possible chance for effecting a fusion ticket by any of the leading political parties was removed by the Court of Appeals to-day when, in the case of Willie Francis against John Sturgill, an election contest case from Knott county, it declared that a party committee, in filling vacancies on a ticket after a primary, must select men who affiliated with that party and supported its nominees at the last general election.

The primary law requires a candidate to file a statement with the Secretary of State in order to get his name on the ballot, that he desires to be the candidate of a particular party for a particular office, and that he is affiliated with that party and supported its nominees at the last general election. The court said if any candidate nominated in a primary withdraws and the committee is thus empowered to fill his place on the ticket, the committee is bound by the same restriction, and must place on the ticket candidates who would have qualified to run in the primary for the nomination.

Both Francis and Sturgill were candidates in 1913 for the Democratic nomination for County Clerk of Knott county. Sturgill had been elected to office before on the Democratic ticket, but he was defeated for the nomination by Francis. Then the Republican candidate, nominated in the primary, withdrew, and the Republican County Committee placed the name of Sturgill on the ballot as the Republican candidate against Francis.

The latter received 960 votes to Sturgill's 929, but Sturgill contested and won in the Circuit Court. Francis appealed, and the Court of Appeals, in an opinion by Judge Settle, the whole Court sitting and concurring, held: "In our opinion appellee did not have a right to have his name go on the ballots as the Republican nominee, for which reason he was not eligible to be voted for at the election and could not properly be adjudged entitled to the office involved, even though it were made to appear that he received a majority of the votes cast."

After reviewing the evidence as to the contested ballots the court decided that Francis had received a majority of the votes and directed that judgment be entered awarding him the certificate of election and commission as County Clerk.

A. S. OF E. NOTICE.

The Ohio county poultry pledges are called to be turned into the poultry committee April 1, so that the committee can go ahead and make arrangements to sell the pool. Now, fellow committeemen and members, please don't fail to return these pledges on date mentioned, for we as your committee want to do the best we can and it is impossible to serve the people to the best advantage unless you do your duty and we can't sell that which is not reported.

S. L. STEVENS,
O. R. TINSLEY,
H. M. PIRTLE,
Committee.

To the Public.

We have opened a general blacksmith and repair shop on Lafayette street, opposite John H. Barnes' residence. We will do all kinds of repair work. Horse-shoeing a specialty. Four plain shoes 80c, four toed shoes $1.00. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. Will appreciate your work.

BARNES & RODGERS,
Beaver Dam, Ky.

The international money order business for the first quarter of the year fell off 33 1-3 per cent, according to figures made public.

HANDCUFFS AND LEG LINKS USED

On Girls At New York
Training School.

NECESSARILY, SAY MANAGERS

But They Deny That Such Punishment Is Barbarous To Victims.

THE "WATER CURE" DREADED

Albany, N. Y., March 19.—A statement from the board of managers of the New York Training School for Girls, at Hudson, confirmed a report of the department of efficiency and economy regarding the type of disciplinary measures used at the institution, but asserted that such punishment is neither barbarous nor unduly strict. Ages of the inmates range from 12 to 16 years.

The report of the department, filed with the Legislature, recommended the removal of Dr. Hortense V. Bruce, superintendent of the Hudson school. The girls there, many of whom had committed no legal offense, were subjected to more severe punishment for infraction of rules than are the most desperate criminals, the report declared.

"Where a girl has been impudent, has refused to obey an officer or is unduly unruly, she is punished by what might popularly be termed the 'water cure,' it was set forth in the charges against the institution's management.

"Her hands are handcuffed behind her back, leg irons are put on her feet, and she is laid across her bed. The assistant superintendent sits on the knees of the girl, while the hospital nurse dips a towel in water and holds it, sopping wet, over the girl's mouth for ten minutes. The girl, being frightened, struggles and in the endeavor to breathe through the wet towel, draws in the water. This treatment either strangles or suffocates her and is kept up until the girl gives in.

"For cases which require more severe punishment than the 'water cure,' solitary confinement in small isolation cells is provided."

A silent rule is in effect from the time the girls arise in the morning until 6 o'clock at night, the report concluded.

The statement of the board of managers to-night said:

"Minor forms of correction are such as are used in careful homes—a sort of moral suasion. All persons having charge of children know that small irregularities must be promptly checked.

"My goodness! may be a sign of insubordination to come. If a child persists in eating her mush with her fingers any sensible parent sends her to eat alone.

"Washing out the mouth with a bitter tonic is an especially wise way of checking a careless tongue, and putting a plaster across the lips an emphatic, practical demonstration of what is to be remembered. It is uncomfortable and ridiculous, but not in the least painful. It fits special cases only and most days not one case of the sort occurs.

"Covering the mouth with a wet towel is only for extreme cases of exaggerated, violent excitement and is incurred by only four-tenths of 1 per cent of the pupils. As the nose is left free, strangulation and suffocation are impossible. The process is merely uncomfortable and ignominious.

"Handcuffs and leg links are necessary in cases of uncontrolled, hysterical violence, such as lead a girl to break all the panes of glass in her window, or her arms with it or dash her head against the wall."

The managers have requested the State board of charities to investigate the school.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head
Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE, 25c.

ROAD-BREAKER IS HIGH TYPE OF CIVILIZATION

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, Herbert Quick, editor of that publication, writes the following interesting editorial.

"The civilized man makes roads; the savage does not. That is the safest test of civilization.

"Among us, in all communities, are individuals who are not really civilized. They do not take any interest in roads.

"A man's scale in civilization is very correctly tested by his attitude towards the stone which has rolled into the road, or the tree which has blown down across it. The man who drives around the obstacle day after day is one sort of man, the one who stops his team and rolls or drags it away is another. And a person passing along a road which he does not expect to retrace, who removes the obstruction for the sake of the stranger who comes after him, responds to a very high test of civilization. He feels socially.

"When the snow piles up in the road the man who goes ahead and breaks the path for others bears the burden which he who has made progress always must bear. There is snow in every road—to co-operation, to better schools, to better business methods. There must be road breakers for every path.

"The road breaker is the great civilizer."

DREAMS HE'S IN COFFIN —MAKES WILL AND DIES

Butte, Mont., March 19.—A remarkable case of a dream coming true and a wish being gratified as a result of his dream vision happened when Patrick Joseph Graham, a resident of this city for twenty-six years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Weldon. The strange story of Graham was disclosed when Attorney Louis E. Haven appeared at the court house to record a will written by Graham a few hours prior to his death.

Mr. Graham, who had been ill for several weeks, took a nap shortly before supper and dreamed that he saw himself laid out in a casket. So impressed was Graham that after supper he summoned Attorney Haven into his office and related his experience, insisting that the lawyer draw up a will. The attorney laughed and in an effort to ease Graham's mind, suggested there was no need of hurry, but his client was obdurate and the will was drawn up, Graham leaving his property to his sister.

"I wish I would die before morning," Graham told the lawyer as he was leaving. "I never thought of death with a feeling of pleasure before. Now that my will is made I'm ready."

Early the next morning Mr. Haven was informed that Graham had died.

A New Way To Catch Rats.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside appears a department called the Headwork Shop, in which readers give each other the benefit of suggestions that have developed out of practical experience. One reader tells as follows about a new way to catch rats:

When the rats have become acquainted with all the traps and deadfalls you can think up for them, nail a small salt fish on the wall about a foot above a tub half full of water. Put two quarts of dry oats on the water and your trap is ready. The rats will go for the fish first, and when they want to come down they will jump into the oats, and you have them."

Health Promotes Happiness.

Without health, genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to. Take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one to-night.

(Advertisement)

In Professions.

There are 2,185,000 men and women in the United States engaged in professional pursuits, according to a report which has just been issued by the census bureau. The males number 1,512,000 and the females 673,000. The professions represented are actors, architects, artists, ministers, dentists, journalists, lawyers, musicians, doctors and teachers. Sixty-three persons in every 100 engaged in professions in the United States are men and 37 are women.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Trouble With the Machine.

"He's always looking for trouble."

"Combative, eh?"

"I don't mean looking for trouble in that way. He has one of these old one-lung automobiles."

Watch Your Children

Often children do not let parents know they are constipated. They fear something distasteful. They will like Rexall Orderlies—a mild laxative that tastes like sugar. Sold only by us, 10 cents.

James H. Williams.

NAPOLEON'S GREAT MARCH INTO PARIS

Occurred Just One Hundred Years Ago.

FOUND THE WAY OPEN TO HIM

Marshal Ney Failed To Keep Promise To Cage the Famous Fighter.

WANTED PEACE—WAS DENIED IT

One hundred years ago Napoleon Bonaparte set out on a march which was destined to prove the greatest personal triumph ever scored by any warrior. After landing in France on his return from his exile in Elba, Napoleon and his thousand followers proceeded to Grenoble. On the 8th of March the emperor set out for Lyons with an army of 7,000 men at his back, every man ready to die for his beloved leader. Although he had a force eight times greater than that he had brought to France, still 7,000 men were not many with which to effect the conquest of a great nation.

On the very day that Napoleon began his triumphant march toward Lyons, his former marshal, Ney, kissed the hand of his new master, the king, and strode out of the Tuileries, saying, "Sire, I will bring Bonaparte back in an iron cage." It was a brave boast, and Ney was probably very much in earnest, but he reckoned without the power of old memories and associations and the forceful personality of his former chief.

While Marshal Soult was denouncing the emperor, and Ney and Macdonald were hastening to oppose his advance, and Montier was rallying the troops in Northern France, and the frightened king was preparing a refuge from the rising storm, Napoleon continued his march unopposed. Everywhere the royal troops tore off their white cockades and trampled them in the mud, and rallied to their old allegiance. Near Lyons 30,000 men deserted in a body. On 12th of March, 1815, Napoleon made his triumphal entrance into Lyons, and the center of France was in his control.

On the following day Marshal Ney received a proclamation from Napoleon. Before that, so Ney afterward testified during his trial for high treason, he was determined to oppose Napoleon. The proclamation made such a powerful appeal that he signed it, declaring that the Bourbons had committed such follies that he could no longer support them, and went over heart and soul to the emperor. A few officers and men hastened to join Napoleon.

The meeting between Napoleon and Ney was an affecting scene. With tears in his eyes, the man who had threatened to put Napoleon in an iron cage, now embraced him as his leader, and begged forgiveness for his past defection. The defection of Ney and of practically the entire army involved the downfall of the monarchy. The throne of Louis XVIII. toppled and fell and the monarch again became an exile.

Without a single battle, without a blow, Napoleon found the way to Paris open to him. While King Louis was fleeing with his household across the border to Ghent, Napoleon entered the capital. No conquering hero ever received a more enthusiastic reception, and Napoleon later declared that that day was the most delightful of his life.

Napoleon now wanted peace, but he was not to have it. Great Britain, Russia, Austria and Prussia again combined against the great trouble-maker, and the emperor was soon forced to unsheath his sword and enter upon that path which led to Waterloo.

For the Stomach and Liver.

I. N. Stuart, West Webster, N. Y., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Tablets for disorders of the stomach and liver off and on for the past five years, and it affords me pleasure to state that I have found them to be just as represented. They are mild in their action and the results have been satisfactory. I value them highly." For sale by all dealers.

(Advertisement.)

PARENTS SHOULD VISIT
THE SCHOOL REGULARLY

I want to urge that more parents visit our school. I have been teaching in this school four years and very few parents have ever looked in on our work. I don't believe you'd put a fine horse in care of a jockey for four years and never in that long time go to see his stable, his stall, his food or his training.

And more, never even talk to his trainer about his progress. Yet many of you have never been to see where your children spend a large part of their time.

You will not disturb us, you need not knock. Just come right in, any time, take a seat and observe. You may not be especially interested in the recitations, some of them, but you'll know whether things are moving along as they should be. Then we want you to feel free to make suggestions as to the work, ventilation, etc. We need your suggestions and co-operation. The children need you. When we are hired for another year, we wonder if it is because the people think we have done good work or because they do not know that we have done poor work. Won't you come?—Ella D. Gregory, in the Meade County Messenger.

STATISTICS UPON OUR SUGAR TREE PRODUCTS

According to the census of 1910, maple sugar was produced in 19 different States, a total of 14,060,206 pounds being manufactured. Vermont produced 7,726,817 pounds of this amount—696,714 pounds more than half of the entire quantity. Had the total amount of sugar been equally divided among the 92,000,000 people in the United States at that time, each person could have received but a single cake weighing about two and a half ounces. In the matter of maple sirup, Vermont stood third in the list, New York and Ohio alone exceeding her output. Had the entire quantity of sirup been reduced to sugar, the total output would have amounted to 47,000,000 pounds, thus showing a bit more than half a pound to each person.

Vermont is so far the only State that has made an exhaustive study of the possibilities of the maple-sugar industry, and it finds that only about half the available maple trees are utilized. Assuming that this ratio exists in all other States, it follows that it would be possible to produce only about one pound per capita for the people of the United States.

What about Canadian competition? In 1910 the total output of sugar and sirup amounted to the equivalent of 28,750,000 pounds of sugar. An estimate made by the Canadian Forestry Department intimates that it might be possible to treble this output. If a total based upon this estimate were sent to the United States there would still be a total of less than two pounds per capita. Surely there is little cause to fear over-production.

The April Woman's Home Companion.

In its April issue the Woman's Home Companion continues its movement for better motion picture films throughout the United States.

In the same number Anna Steese Richardson begins a new series entitled, "Mrs. Larry's Adventures in Thrift," in which practical demonstration is given of the advantage to housekeepers of the Housewives League, which gives women practical help on buying for their households. Anne Morgan, daughter of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, contributes a "Talk to American Girls" entitled, "The Girl and Her Future." Albert Lee begins a new series entitled, "Made-in-America Vacations." These articles are to describe for readers appropriate trips to take in the United States, the idea being that, with conditions in Europe as they are, American travel will be greatly increased this summer.

Fiction is contributed by Alice Brown, Mary Heaton Vorse, Sophie Kerr Underwood, Mabel Dill, and Mary Hastings Bradley.

The regular Fashion, Cooking, Young People's, and Housekeeping departments are lively with practical suggestions and entertaining features.

How To Give Quinine To Children.

FEBRILINE is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is a Tasteless Syrup, pleasant to take and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine. Does not nauseate nor cause nervousness nor ringing in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. Ask for 2-ounce original package. The name FEBRILINE is blown in bottle. 25 cents.

The Most Useless Things.

Umbrella tassels.
A war correspondent.
A gold pencil.
Advice.
White labels.
Beauty aids.
Narratives by returned tourists.
Buttons on men's coat sleeves.
A woman's no.
Peace talk.

Subscribe for The Hartford Herald

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

will relieve your indigestion. Many people in this town have used them and we have yet to hear of a case where they have failed. We know the formula. Sold only by us—25c a box.

James H. Williams.

WHEN YOU SEE OUR NEW SPRING SUITS
AND WRAPS YOU WILL PICK OUT YOURS
AND SAY "WRAP THEM UP."

WHEN YOU WEAR THEM, YOUR FRIENDS WILL ADMIRE YOU AND ASK YOU: "WHERE DID YOU GET THOSE LOVELY CLOTHES?"

OF COURSE YOU WILL WANT TO FAVOR
YOUR FRIENDS AND TELL THEM THAT YOU GOT YOUR NEW OUTFIT AT OUR STORE.

OUR STYLES, MATERIALS AND PRICES
URGE EVERY WOMAN WHO COMES TO BUY
HER SPRING OUTFIT FROM US.

Carson & Co.,
(Incorporated.)
HARTFORD, KY.

VERY STRANGE MIXTURE USED BY TWO NEGROES

To Destroy "Sinful Germs"—

A Family Suffering From Religious Craze.

The Owensboro Messenger of Thursday says:

The "mystery" surrounding the finding of "poison" on the premises of Wilson Crowe, a respected negro, who resides at Nuckolls, was cleared up yesterday morning when the bloodhounds brought from Tell City by Marshal Hawkins, led the officer to the home of John and Augustus Johnson, negroes, seventeen and twenty-seven years old, respectively, who immediately confessed their guilt. The Johnson brothers were not arrested, but came to Owensboro and unfolded a strange story to the police.

John Johnson said he was a preacher. He said he "got religion" on Christmas day, and that he was commanded by the Lord to place, salt, pepper and copperas around the doorstep of William Crowe, in order to destroy the "sinful germs" which lived around the house.

Shortly after John "got religion" his brother, Augustus, also "got it" and the sprinkling of the germ destroying mixture was done by both of the negroes, while the former chanted prayers and songs. The Johnson brothers reside in Nuckolls, and according to their story they have sprinkled the solution around the doorstep of every resident of the town in order to give every one religion.

The police made an investigation of the "mystery" and learned that the entire Johnson family is suffering from a religious craze. John Johnson has been known to fast four days and nights, and it was learned that he remained up all night Tuesday chanting songs.

There were no charges against the negroes in this county, and they returned home yesterday afternoon.

Why Discriminate?

The bill in the Kansas Legislature to punish women for "creating a false impression" by kalsomining the face and using other arts, does not go far enough. For example, there is the woman of 120 pounds who makes up to appear 150 and gets away with it until the wind disarranges things. However, the Jayhawker lawmakers should not hector one sex and ignore similar offenses of men. Why not fine the man who essays to cover his "summerhead" by brushing his scanty locks upward from the ears? Why not put a crimp in the man who wears a dyed moustache in the hope of fooling anybody but himself?—[Portland Oregonian.]

Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my customers because I have confidence in it. I find that they are pleased with it and call for it when again in need of such a medicine," writes J. W. Sexson, Montevideo, Mo. For sale by all dealers. (Advertisement.)

Queer Old Laws.

France in 1314 passed laws regulating the size of the cloak and robe, the breadth of the trimming and the number of suits possessed by each person; also the diet, including the hour of meals and the number of dishes.

HAPPY WOMEN

Plenty of Them In Hartford, and Good Reason For It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering. Days of misery, nights of unrest. The distress of urinary troubles. When she finds freedom? Many readers will profit by the following:

Mrs. Pearl Walton, Earlington, Ky., says: "Some years ago I began to suffer from weak kidneys. I did not pay much attention to the trouble at first but when I found that I had little control over the kidney secretions, I knew that something must be done. My rest was broken at night and in the morning I was tired and worn out. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and my kidneys have been in good condition since."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Walton had. Foster-McBurn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Smith had. Foster-McBurn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE EFFORTS OF CHARITY ABUSED

By People Who Live For Nothing Else.

LARGE CITIES GIVE EXAMPLE

How Self-Seeking Bread-Liner Replaces Self-Supporting Bread-Winner.

ROBT. BURDETTE'S ADMONITION

Worse than the brutalizing effect of the world-wide war upon coming generations must be the effect in this country of our coddling the weak and palavering with the wicked.

We are putting a premium on beggary and crime, a discount on thrift, independence and grit. We are substituting luck for pluck. The self-supporting bread-winner is making way for the self-seeking bread-liner.

What self-respect will be left in the children of those who are being taught by the sensational press and tearful uplifters that they need no longer depend, as their father did, on their own exertions for a living, but that bread lines will give them their food and "Bundle Day" their raiment by day and municipal lodging houses their bed by night.

A season of suffering always means a lesson of sacrifice. Now, with higher wages and shorter hours of work than ever before and the highest returns to the wage earner given in any land, bread lines and free lodging houses and "Bundle Day" have become the vogue.

The "movies" have taken the place of the savings banks among the pleasure-loving, thoughtless crowd of improvidents, unrefined, unhappy, go-lucky, with no thought of the morrow. To these the bread line and the soup house and "Bundle day" afford all they need. Why should they worry?

What kind of a new generation will spring from the loins of those who are taught, not the meaning of self-sacrifice, self-respect and self-dependence, but that the world owes them a living? From such we shall surely breed a generation that will believe that if the world does not give them an easy living, they will have a right to take it by force.

Isn't this a good time to cut out and paste in our hats the sensible admonition of the late Robert J. Burdette, in his address at the convention of the American Bankers' Association, in Los Angeles, in 1910, when he said:

"A little bit of every pay envelope, enough to patch a leak in the roof, enough to provide for the rainy day," enough for the holiday once in a while, enough for a new book and an evening of the "show," enough for the dreary days of sickness.

"Enough to pay every bill when it is presented. Enough to take up the note when it is due. Enough to save the man from becoming the unmitigated nuisance that is always borrowing quarters and halves, knowing they are obligations too small to justify a dun.

"Just enough in the bank so that when your wife needs a little extra money for the little emergency demands in the household she won't come to you with the air of a woman who has made up her mind to suicide or murder, and doesn't care very much which.

"That's thrift. That makes a man rich on a salary. Earn, save, lay by enough to keep the wolf away from the door when the hearse with its sable plumes halts to receive its freight of nothingness."—[Leslie's Weekly.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN.

Brooklyn has a brass band composed of women.

Oregon has four women professional chauffeurs.

In China the mother-in-law is the boss of the house.

European Russia has the highest birth rate in the world.

Of every million girl babies born, 871,264 are alive at 12 months.

Miss Maude Anders has been appointed deputy sheriff in Logansport, Ind.

Fifty-seven women are engaged as instructors in the University of Nebraska.

It is claimed that women of this country spend 85 per cent of the wealth.

In the field at harvest time in Poland far more women are to be seen than men.

The University of New Mexico has established a department of household economics.

There are 107 colleges in the United States exclusively for women with nearly 20,000 students.

Twelve women are making a canvass of the most remote parts of England for recruits for Lord Kitchener's army.

Owing to the depression caused by the war, female servants are the only kind of labor wanted in the British colonies.

Female typists are proving to be the best rifle shots at the several ranges now being set up throughout England.

Four young women graduates of the Washington College of Law have just been admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

The Polish women have ever been noted for their physical charms, their hands and feet being, from an artistic point of view, absolutely perfect.

Governor Carlson, of Colorado, has appointed his wife as assistant Governor and she will put in just as much time at the State Capital as her husband.

Ah! The Invigorating Whiff Of The Pine Forest!

How it clears the throat and head of its mucous ailments! It is this spirit of newness and vigor from the health-giving piney forests brought back by Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Antiseptic and healing. Buy a bottle to-day. All druggists, 25c. Electric Bitters a spring tonic. (Advertisement)

Smiths Grove To Have Lights.

At a meeting of the town board of Smiths Grove a contract was made with Gill Edwards, of Pembroke, to install and maintain an electric light plant there, said plant to be in operation by May 1.

"PAY UP WEEK" IS A POPULAR THING

Western Towns Haveinaugurated Idea.

GETS PEOPLE TO PAY DEBTS

Every Person Who Settles Up Gets Chance At Fifty-Dollar Prize.

GOOD SCHEME FOR ANY PLACE

Following the leadership of Waukon, a little town near La Crosse, many Wisconsin cities are contemplating putting on a "pay-up-week."

The movement grew out of the conviction that once each year citizens should make a systematic effort to put their business affairs in shape.

The Waukon Commercial Club took an active part in making "pay-up week" the success it was. Charles E. Pye, its Secretary, did the largest part of the work. It was he who explained to his fellow townsmen the benefits that would result from such a movement, and encouraged all classes to give the idea a trial.

In explaining how the plan worked out, Mr. Pye says: "The settlement week movement is an effort to get each community to set a time each year in which men shall settle one with the other and get their business bearings, so as intelligently to carry on the work of the next year. In the first place business is so intricate and complex that one man's business success depends upon the other fellow. If I pay my bill the other fellow can pay his, and so an endless chain is set in motion that finally comes back to me.

"In the second place, men go on year after year doing business in a haphazard way, not knowing where they stand. One man, a tailor, told me that he had been doing business back and forth with a dentist for ten years and that he had no idea who was the debtor, or how much.

In the third place, the last year has been especially unfortunate in the number of book accounts. Because of these we instituted this week.

"The plan was about as follows: The Commercial Club put up a purse of $50 to those who should pay their accounts. Then in each statement sent out, a numbered slip was placed. The merchants sent out about eight thousand statements, and as a result more than two thousand accounts were settled. In addition to that we made an appeal to the community spirit through the papers. If all the accounts owed were paid, prosperity for the coming year would be assured and other things of the same tenor were stated.

"Then we had big window cards: 'Do It To-day,' 'Settle Your Accounts.' On the payment of an account the merchant gave a ticket and this entitled the holder to a chance on the $50. As a result more than $40,000 was paid in the week and probably much more that we cannot even estimate."—[La Crosse (Wis.) Cor. Kansas City Star.

Texas Is Spoiling For A Scrap.

It is said that there is a Mexican plot to seize Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. A plot like that would fairly make Texas water at the mouth.—[Minneapolis Journal.

ADVICE TO FARMERS OF A PRACTICAL KIND

The United States Department of Agriculture, the State boards and the experts all over the country are urging the farmers of America to cultivate every available acre during the present year. The war in Europe assures the sale of almost everything that can be raised. Every article that is exported to feed the soldiers and the citizens and the stock of Europe, means just that much less for home consumption, therefore, even with big crops of everything, the prices will be high.

If it is not a good crop year the farmers will at least raise enough for home use and will not have to pay the high prices that will prevail. Utilize every available acre for grain, grasses and vegetables. In many sections farmers are urged to try a double acreage of potatoes. It should not be necessary, under proper conditions, to import potatoes into any agricultural county. Put the hens and the turkeys to work and give them a square deal. Raise pigs, cattle and horses in as large numbers as the accommodations of the farm will justify and any losses that any farmer, planter or rancher may have sustained last year will be more than made good.

The war in Europe may last for months or years, but while it continues there will be an active demand for everything we produce. Should the war end this week, the nations engaged will need all our surplus products for a year at least. Take our advice, for once, and do not permit good, tillable land to lie idle in 1915.

BILLY SUNDAY'S TALK TO FELLOW PREACHERS

Here is some of the advice Billy gave the embryo parsons:

"Try to make the bell ring. Try to land a jolt under the fifth rib. Get a text that means something and stick to it. Get some new words. I use some that Webster never heard of, but I can give him a run for his money anyhow. A new word's like a toothbrush. It's not yours really until you've used it a few times.

"Don't try to be a Daniel Webster on the lowest shelf.

"Don't try to feed the intellectual giraffes of your congregation. If you do, the sheep will starve to death. Don't go around on stilts, throwing religious circulars into their second-story windows. Don't use a sledge hammer to drive a tack.

"Don't be afraid of criticism. Preach what the Lord wants you to and if any one don't like it let them tie up their purse strings and beat it. Remember about Henry Ward Beecher? He was asked what he did if his audience began to yawn and snap their watches. 'In such a case,' Beecher said, 'my janitor has orders to go right to the pulpit and wake up the preacher.'

"Preaching John Smith, and him dignified, is not preaching Jesus Christ—and Him crucified. A theological professor in the place of Peter the Apostle might have set the world back a thousand years.

"Study! If you don't you'll soon be able to take your collar off over your head without unbuttoning it.

"Don't preach the 'consensus of highest intelligence.' The work of lots of our theological seminaries along that line is pernicious. They turn out a lot of little two-by-four infidels who can't tell if man came from the Garden of Eden or a zoological garden, and who couldn't find the Prodigal Son without a Concordance.

"Don't preach too long. Remember Mark Twain! When his preacher talked for five minutes about the heathen, he wept and was going to give $50. After ten minutes he cut it to $25. After half an hour he reduced it to $5. At the end of an hour when the plate was passed he stole $2.

"If the Pure Food Law was applied to many present day sermons there'd be something doing!"

Billy then told his system: "I loaded up the old Gospel-gun with rocksalt and ipecac, sour milk, dynamite and barbed wire and screwed the old butt up and pulled the trigger, and ever since the devils' gang have been hunting their holes!"

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly

The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILI TONIC, drives out Malaria, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children. 50c

Family Menagerie.

Johnny—It's funny ain't it, that everybody in our family's some kind of an animal?"

Father—What do you mean?"

Johnny—Why, mother's a dear and baby is a lamb, I'm the kid, and you're the goat.

Good News

Our line of Easter Goods has arrived. Write for our free illustrated catalogue. It contains everything.

C. P. BARNES & CO.

Jewelers & Opticians

504 W. Market St. LOUISVILLE, - KY.

When People Ask Us

what is good for nerves and lost weight, we always recommend

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion

a food tonic and tissue builder.

James M. Williams.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging

Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave

Up in Despair. Husband

Came to Rescue.

Caron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper. 1-6c

Special Attention!

In addition to our regular line of General Merchandise we have a complete line of Automobile Accessories, Tires, Etc., in best standard brands.

Dexter & Baker, Beaver Dam, Ky.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

The Farm Agency of the Continental Fire Insurance Co., of Hartford, Connecticut, formerly represented by A. C. Yeiser, has been transferred to me. I also have the Agency for the recording business in the following companies: Continental, Hartford, Aetna, Phoenix and Fidelity underwriters, which includes the business written in all towns in Ohio county.

These are all old line Insurance Companies.

I will be glad to have you call on me or I will see you at your home for anything in the Insurance line.

E. E. BIRKHEAD, Hartford, Ky.

Office Phone, No. 66. Residence Phone, No. 41.

E. F. JACKSON F. G. JACKSON

Let Jackson Bros. plan and build you a nice home this year while building material is cheap. Plans, Blue Prints and Specifications on short notice.

Jackson Bros.

Architects and Building Contractors.

Home Phone 32-2. CENTERTOWN, KY

KENTUCKY

Light and Power Company

(INCORPORATED)

E. G. BARRASS MGR.

Hartford, Ky.

Will wire your house at cost. Electric Lights are clean, healthy and safe. No home or business house should be without them when within reach

Plenty of Good Reading

In The Herald and in You Costs Only One Dollar a Year

When Anybody Finds a Cure He Is Generally Willing To Tell His Neighbor

¶ The willingness of one neighbor to tell another neighbor in a private way of the benefit received from Peruna, explains the popularity of Peruna more than all the advertising that has been done.

¶ The fear of the publicity undoubtedly prevents the majority of such people from writing a testimonial to be used in the newspaper. But in spite of that we are receiving fine testimonials continually.

ANEMIA—Mrs. F. A. DeWitt, Marengo, Ohio, says: "I believe Peruna to be the best tonic. I recommend it for any run-down condition of the system."

SPRING COLDS—Mrs. Rhoda Stufflebeam, Bunch, Iowa: "A spring cold I took settled on my lungs. Coughed. Could not sleep. We feared consumption. Thanks to Peruna, I am a well woman today."

CATARH—Mrs. Sadie Allen, Joseph, Oregon: "My little boy is entirely cured of catarrh of the ears by Peruna. Am thankful for your good advice."

SPRING TONIC—Mrs. Wm. McRoberts, Brown Valley, Minn.: "Taken in spring Peruna tones up the system, acts as a tonic. I consider Peruna a whole family medicine chest."

¶ How did they hear of Peruna?

¶ Simply because one neighbor is always willing to tell another one he has found a cure. Neighborly conversation of grateful patients has done more for Peruna than advertising. Much more.

The "Ills of Life," sent free.

The Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

The Hartford Herald

HEBER MATTHEWS, FRANK L. FELIX,
EDITORS.
FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r.

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

Sometimes you hear the newspaper business or its followers referred to as the "fourth estate," and no doubt you wonder where the term originated. The Cincinnati Enquirer gives the following explanation: Thomas Carlyle in one of his lectures on "Heroes and Hero Worship," said: "Burke said that there were three estates in Parliament, but in the reporters' gallery yonder there sat a fourth estate more important far than they all." This was in 1839 or 1840. The term is applied to all in the newspaper profession.

One of the most important meetings of the year to the people of the State will be that of the Kentucky Educational Association which takes place in Louisville April 21st to 24th. In some counties it has been decided to abandon all public holidays for the remainder of the school term and instead give the children a vacation on April 21, 22 and 23, to enable the teacher to attend this big educational meeting. Trustees should also attend, as well as teachers. Railroads are giving a very low round-trip rate and all interested people should go.

The biggest political issue in Kentucky this year, if the candidates for the higher offices will only address themselves to it, is the financial condition of the State. This is of the most vital importance to the taxpayers. It is true that the present administration inherited a million-dollar deficit from its Republican predecessor, but this has been added to instead of diminished. The State's financial matters are very serious. The plan of retrenchment and reform is badly needed. Other matters or issues may be important, but the State's financial condition and outlook overtops all.

Much stress is being laid upon the issue of State-wide Prohibition as affecting the candidates who are now running for the Governorship of Kentucky. As a matter of fact it makes very little difference how they stand. If the matter comes up for action at all—which it should not—it will come before the next Legislature, which assembles a year hence. The Governor then will have practically nothing to do with the matter. The candidates for the Legislature in the different counties are the ones upon whom the question rests more than any other candidates. The Legislature of 1916 will have the matter in hand if it comes up at all.

There is no law in this country that is absolutely immutable against violation. The best that any law can do is to afford restraint and penalties against certain acts or offenses. There is a law against murder, but people will continue to kill each other. There is a law against theft, but stealing goes on. Some people contend that prohibition of the liquor traffic does not stop drinking or the selling of liquor. Certainly not—altogether. But does any other law absolutely prohibit named offenses? Must we license men to kill, to steal, to sell mind and body destroying liquor, simply because we think they will pay no attention to prohibitory laws?

The Elizabethtown News says: The fight for a platform convention before the primary seem to be growing in popular favor, due to changed political conditions. The News will be for it if we think it necessary to save the party from defeat.

That is a sensible, manly way of looking at the matter. All along Editor Sommers has been against an ante-primary convention, but he is willing to be reasonable in his attitude, as always, for the party's sake. Quite different from two or three other Democratic papers that contend for an after-the-primary convention and defiantly close their remarks with "and that is when it is going to be held." Better have a convention before the voting and then the platform will be of the people's making and not of the little bunch of candidates.

Tobacco House Burned.

The large tobacco house, known as the Walker building, at Fordsville, together with a small quantity of tobacco, was destroyed by fire about 10 o'clock last Monday night. We are informed that the building, which was owned by S. B. Lee, of Owensboro, was valued at about $2,000 with $1,500 insurance. Origin of fire not known.

Subscribe for The Hartford Herald.

THE TWO AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

Voted On Last Year Will Be Re-Submitted At Next
General Election.

The two constitutional amendments adopted by the people in 1913 and nullified by the failure of the Secretary of State to advertise them within the time limit fixed by the Constitution, have been resubmitted by the General Assembly and are again to be voted on at the election of this year.

The first provides for revision of a tax system under which the farmer pays ninety cents of every dollar collected in taxes. The second provides for the working of the convicts on the public roads.

Heretofore opposition to a revision of the tax system has been based on the theory that it would work injury to the farmer. Its chief advocates have been those politicians whose chief stock in trade has been their pose as the "Farmer's Friend." The popular vote in 1913 served warning that the farmer in Kentucky had already begun to do his own thinking. Nothing has since occurred to cause him to doubt the wisdom of that course.

In the matter of convict labor on the roads, strong opposition is certain to be encountered from the prison labor contractors, whose profits from slave labor will be cut off should the amendment carry. Until now, these contractors, through an offensive and defensive alliance with the political machine in power, have successfully resisted any attempt to interfere with their special privileges.

This year 104 of the 120 counties in Kentucky have asked and been granted financial aid by the State in the building of their roads. The Federal Government has promised its assistance in the form of civil engineers and expert bridge builders. That convict labor on roads is as efficient as free labor and that the cost is less than half, has been demonstrated by actual test in more than a score of States. Kentucky has entered on the most comprehensive scheme of road building of any of the States of the South. Convict labor will help in the working out of that program.

There is every reason to believe that the popular vote on the adoption of both amendments will be as decisively affirmative as it was two years ago. There is reason to believe that the Secretary of State will not again overlook the fact that the Constitution imposes on him a ministerial duty in connection with the adoption of constitutional amendments. That duty is to advertise the fact that a vote is to be taken at least ninety days before the election. The Secretary of State can, if he will, begin the work of advertising now. There is nothing in the Constitution to prevent him. There is the memory of his former unfortunate forgetfulness to incite him.—[Louisville Times.]

Important Notice.

All persons having claims against the estate of R. L. Owen, deceased, will present them to me before May 1, 1915. Also all persons indebted to said estate will please settle same at once and save cost.

FLORENCE OWEN, Adm'x.,
1214 Reynolds Station, Ky.

Big Snow In Mountains.

Whitesburg, Ky., March 22.—Record-breaking weather prevails in Eastern Kentucky. Eight inches of snow fell in the valleys last night, the second heavy snow within a week. Snow is still falling in the mountains, where much of the fall of last week is still on the ground. The snow is from sixteen to eighteen inches deep. Development work is delayed.

WANTED.

A span of good heavy work mules. See or address,
Beaver Dam Brick Co.,
1212 Beaver Dam, Ky.

To the Public.

Having bought out Black & Birkhead's Livery, Transfer and Freight business, I kindly solicit your patronage. Prompt attention given to all orders.

When you come to Hartford be sure to stop at my stable for feed or hitch. S. E. BENNETT,
1214 Hartford, Ky.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Secretary of State.

We are authorized to announce G. B. LIKENS, of Ohio county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State, General Primary Election, Aug. 7, 1915.

For Representative.

We are authorized to announce J. F. PHILLIPS, of Taylor Mines, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative from Ohio county in the next General Assembly of Kentucky, General Primary Election, August 7, 1915.

We are authorized to announce W. S. DEAN, of Dundee, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative of Ohio county in the next General Assembly of Kentucky. State Primary Election August 7, 1915.

For Circuit Judge.

We are authorized to announce JUDGE J. S. GLENN, of Hartford, as a candidate for the nomination for Judge of the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the State Primary the first Saturday in August, 1915.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JOHN H. THOMAS, of Ohio county, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Senator, 7th District, composed of Ohio, Muhlenberg and Butler counties. General Primary Election, August 7, 1915.

For Circuit Court Clerk.

We are authorized to announce S. P. McKENNEY, of Beaver Dam, as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democrats of Ohio county, at the General Primary election, August 7, 1915.

We are authorized to announce A. C. PORTER, of Heflin, as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democrats of Ohio county, at the General Primary election, August 7, 1915.

We are authorized to announce OTTO C. MARTIN as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republicans of Ohio county, at the general primary election, August 7, 1915.

We are authorized to announce WALLACE H. RILEY as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republicans of Ohio county at the General Primary Election, August 7, 1915.

Spring's Greeting And The New Styles Shown by Owensboro's Store of Standard Merchandise

Some of the Factors—that have played such an important part in the building of the splendid business enjoyed by this Store have been our ability and our determination to offer grand reductions of the right lines at the right time—to sell the things that are needed just when they are wanted—to make low prices a vital consideration. With these principles to back us up, we earnestly solicit the patronage of our neighbors in Hartford and vicinity.

Unusually Attractive Styles in Ready-To-Wear
With a Grand Variety of Spring's Styles Up To $50.00
FEATURING THIS SPECIAL AT $14.75.

As remarkable as that seems these Suits will be a pleasant surprise in both style and value. They are made of splendid tailoring weight Poplins, with Silk Peau-de-Cygne Linings, Silk Faced Lapels, Etc.
$14.75 IS A REMARKABLE PRICE FOR THESE SUITS.

FASHION MIGHT REST ON HER LAURELS
GAINED BY OUR MILLINERY OFFERINGS.

But fashion does not rest, neither do our milliners cease to translate the season's newest styles as fast as they may be brought out.

MODERATE PRICES ARE THE RULE.
Bewitching copies of foreign models are shown in an attractive array of "Chic Turban" and other small shapes so much wanted now.
RANGING IN PRICES FROM $2.50 TO $5.00.

A FAIR IN ITSELF IS OUR EXHIBIT OF

NEW DRESS FABRICS.

An ample evidence of the solid basis for this store's claim as a shopping place, offering unlimited selections of the season's most beautiful weaves and shades in Silks, Woolens and Fine Cotton Fabrics.

36-IN. SILK POPLIN AT $1.00.
36-IN. CREPE DE CHINE AT $1.50.

Soft Taffetas, Garberdines, Crepes, Duchesse and other popular weaves, ranging in price from $1.50 to $3.50 the yard.

GORGEOUS FABRICS FOR SUMMER.

Shown in intricate weaves in White and Gorgeous Brocades, beautiful Stripes and Colored printed Designs in fine Cottons.

SOFT CREPES, VOILES AND SOFT NOVELTIES

In a generous array of exclusive values for pretty summer dresses.

MODERATELY PRICED.

STORE NEWS.

Come to our store at any time and enjoy its shopping advantages. Leave your packages to be cared for. Make yourself comfortable in the rest room.

Miss Moore, our accomplished modiste, has returned from the East and is ready to talk Suits and Dresses to the patrons of this store.

The Millinery Department is a beautiful place just now. The styles are unusually attractive this season and better still, the rule seems to be toward reasonable prices.

It is worth an hour of your busiest day to just take a walk through our Furniture department. Every way you turn there is something elegant to enjoy.

The Fourth Floor, Carpet department, is having a pre-housecleaning sale of household needs. Time to save money on Rugs, Curtains, Wall Paper, Draperies, Etc.

McATEE, LYDDANE & RAY, Owensboro, Ky.

GOOD TIME For a Life-Time,

If you buy a SOUTH BEND WATCH, guaranteed by both the factory and Jeweler.

I also have a fine line of Diamonds and Jewelry at the right prices.

Quick sales and small profits. All kinds Watch and Jewelry repairing.

All work done on a positive guarantee.

M. D. HUDSON,
Beaver Dam, Ky.

NOTICE!

We want to buy a good horse. Will pay the right kind of price for the right kind of horse. We want a horse 16 hands high, good style, good conformation, good disposition, good manners, and must be sound and not afraid of steam or automobiles, etc. Must work good, be not over 6 or 7 years old, bay or black preferred. When you write us, give full description and price in first letter.

DEXTER & VINCENT, Centertown, Ky.

Dealers in Saddles, Harness, Hardware, Fancy and Staple Groceries, Fertilizer, Field Seeds, Etc.

P. S.—Remember we have lots of Square Brand Fertilizer and Royal Field Fence on hand.

Subscribe for THE HERALD and get the latest news. Only $1.00 per year.

Fine Monumental Work

We have the largest, finest and best equipped Monumental Works in whole Western Kentucky.

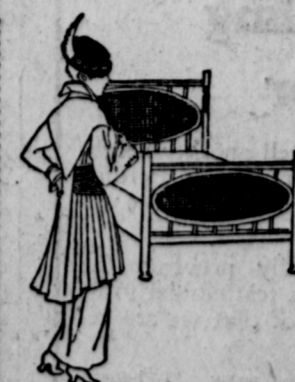

Carving and Lettering with pneumatic tools.

An "up-to-the-minute" equipment for fine Monumental work.

Thirty-seven years of honest business reputation and experience is back of every Monument that is sold by us. Remember there is only one Geo. Mischel & Sons in Owensboro and that is on East Main Street, Owensboro, Ky.

Get our prices before placing orders elsewhere.
Geo. Mischel & Sons, Owensboro, Ky.

Our Beds Are the Best For Your Money

LATEST patterns and makes in beds are here for your selection.

They are worth your inspection. You will be interested in the remarkable value for such up to date designs.

Our large stock of furniture is by far the most attractive in this section. You get equally as good return for your money as you would in the largest of metropolitan stores.

We keep abreast of the times by carrying new styles. If you are going to furnish or refurnish your home call on us. You will surely receive satisfaction. Our terms are very liberal. Let us serve you.

ACTON BROS., - Hartford, Ky.

The Herald Is Cheap at a Dollar a Year.

Special Prices on Pianos and Organs

On account of being overstocked at this time, we are offering special inducements to those wishing to purchase.

SECOND HAND PIANOS $50 AND UP
SECOND-HAND ORGANS $15 AND UP

Daniel-Samuels Music Company
OWENSBORO, KY.

EASTER ACCESSORIES!

We are prepared to show you a splendid line of materials for Easter wear, including the newest in Millinery, Silks, Woolen and Wash material, Gloves, Hosiery, Neckwear, Slippers, Etc.

We appreciate beyond expression your presence at our Millinery Opening and the way our orders are pouring in shows to us that you appreciate our big showing and also assures us that our styles and values are correct.

You will find, both in our Millinery and Dress Goods Department, courteous and capable salesladies to assist you in your selection. McCall Patterns carried in stock. Visit us and remember THAT IT PAYS TO TRADE WITH A HOUSE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY.

An Empire Dress in Military Simplicity
McCall Patterns 5419-5437. Two McCall designs which are among the 50 made for April.

FAIR & CO.

THE FAIR DEALERS

Mrs. Sam Barnett was called to Hanson, Ky., a few days ago on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Zerilda DeMoss. Mrs. Barnett has not yet returned.

Don't fail to read McAtee, Lydane & Ray's spring greeting and invitation to customers to see their new goods, found on 4th page. This is one of Owensboro's most popular and largely patronized stores.

Little Miss Helen Thomas Renfrow, daughter of Dr. T. D. Renfrow, Livermore, Ky., has come to Hartford to make her home with her aunt, Mrs. S. J. Wedding, since the death of her mother, which occurred March 17, 1915.

Mrs. R. R. Ray and children, recently of Cambridge Springs, Pa., visited Mrs. Ray's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Pettie, a few days recently, leaving yesterday for Lawrenceburg, Ky., where they will make their future home.

Among The Herald's recent callers were: Messrs. A. J. Carter, R. N. Duke and Jas. T. Davis, Hartford, Route 1; Dr. J. W. Taylor, Rev. W. H. Foreman and Mr. R. A. Anderson, Hartford; E. L. Calvert, Centertown, and L. T. Barnes, Beaver Dam.

C. P. Barnes & Co., the well known jewelers, Louisville, Ky., request that you read their advertisements which will appear in The Herald's columns during the ensuing year. This firm is so well known by our readers, having been in our columns almost constantly for the past quarter of a century, comment is unnecessary. Read their "Good News" advertisement this week. Found on page 3.

Our local postmaster, Mr. R. B. Martin, is just in receipt of a card from Mr. Chas. A. Kram, Auditor for the Post-Office Department, Washington, D. C., which reads: "Your postal account for the quarter ended December 31, 1914, has been audited and found correct as rendered, no balance being due thereon either to or from the United States." This shows good book-keeping where such a multiplicity of items appear.

A SERIES OF MEETINGS AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

A protracted meeting was begun at the Baptist church here Monday night which will be conducted by the pastor, Dr. A. S. Pettie, assisted by Rev. C. T. Brookshire, of Owensboro, who will lead in the singing.

Dr. Pettie being out of town the first night, his pulpit was filled by Dr. B. F. Swindler, of Carlisle, Ky., who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Williams here. Dr. Swindler preached a splendid sermon to a large audience and left for home yesterday morning. In the course of his remarks he mentioned the fact that he was ordained to preach in the court house here, September, 1874—over forty years ago.

Dr. Pettie resumed his pulpit last night with a characteristically strong and able sermon and the services will continue until further notice, at night and 2:30 in the afternoon. The public is cordially invited.

TOWN TAXES.

6% penalty goes on all town taxes April 1st.

O. T. O'BANNON,
Tax Collector,
City of Hartford.

Public Sale.

On Saturday, March 27, 1915, I will offer for sale at public auction at my residence on Clay street, Hartford, Ky., all of my household and kitchen furniture. Also some plows and harrows, good buggy and harness, five (5) strong colonies of bees. Sale begins at 10 o'clock a. m.

Terms—All sums $3.00 and under, cash; all over $3.00 six months time with note and approved security.

I will also privately rent my residence. Good, rich gardens, abundance of fruit, such as plums, peaches, pears and grapes.

R. A. ANDERSON,
Hartford, Ky.

Announcement.

H. M. Miller, of Louisville, Expert Optician, will be at the office of Dr. P. T. Willis, in Beaver Dam, Friday and Saturday, April 9th and 10th, to examine eyes and fit glasses. If your eyes are giving the least trouble, you should consult him, for his work is of the highest grade and he positively guarantees it. He comes to Beaver Dam every two months. 1212

FARMERS ENGAGE IN A FATAL FIGHT OVER CORN

Irvington, Ky., March 19.—John Lewis Henry, a farmer and stock trader, was killed to-day by E. Stant Garner. The latter is also a farmer. They quarreled over corn and Garner contends that he shot in self-defense. He gave himself up. An inquest was held this evening, the jury returning a verdict to the effect that Lewis met his death at the hands of Garner. The latter was taken to Hardinsburg and placed in jail to await the result of his examining trial.

YOUNG MEN ENGAGE IN AN ALL-AROUND FIGHT

Owen Crowe, of near Dundee, came to Hartford last Saturday and met with Will and Charlie Burton. After indulging pretty freely in "booze," presumably from Hayti, they repaired to Mr. Schreter's Studio, just below the bridge and had a picture made. On their return trip and near Mr. Ford's mill, Will and Owen got into a "scrap." Owen, it is said, was getting the best of the fight when Charlie pounced on him with a club, beating him up pretty severely. About this time Deputy Sheriff S. A. Bratcher came upon the scene and arrested the parties, who were taken before County Judge Wilson, who fixed Charlie's bond at $150, which was executed. The examining trial, under the charge of assault and battery, against Charlie Burton, will be heard before Judge Wilson to-day.

Owen Crowe, after having his wounds dressed, was permitted to go home, having first been recognized to appear as a witness to-day. Will Burton was also recognized as a witness, and permitted to go.

Simon Jones Dead.

Mr. Simon Jones, of Render, for many years with the Central Coal & Iron Co., died at his residence last Monday evening of diseases incident to old age. At last account yesterday afternoon the funeral arrangements had not been completed. His remains will be interred in the Render cemetery this afternoon if the specially constructed vault is completed in time.

Mr. Jones was well and favorably known throughout the county and will be greatly missed in his community.

The deceased had been in ill health since last May. He would have been 73 years old next Saturday.

Stricken Miners Return Thanks.

To the members of the Ohio County Court and the good people of Hartford, Ky.:—We extend our thankfulness for the kindness and generosity shown us in the hour of adversity and could you have seen the joy your contributions carried to those in need, you would readily see that "it's more blessed to give than to receive."

Signed: Robt. Owens, J. M. Renolds, J. D. Walker, Committee Local 1793, U. M. W. of A., Render, Ky.
J. W. Blackburn, W. A. Nave, Robt. Calloway, Committee Local 809, U. M. W. of A., Williams Mines, Ky.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

U. S. Carson, the Grocerman, Hartford, has many bargains to offer in the general and fancy grocery line. Call and get his prices and see for yourself 1014

Eggs For Hatching.

Will carry two pens barred Plymouth Rocks this year.

First pen headed by First Pen Cockrel from Cypher's Poultry Farm, New York. Second pen headed by First Pen Cockrel from Goshen Poultry Farms. First pen eggs, $1.00 per 15 eggs. Second pen, 75 cents per 15 eggs.

Also will be able to furnish day-old chicks at 15c apiece.

J. C. ILLER,
Hartford, Ky.

Notice.

For sale, one road wagon. Will sell cheap. See BARNES & RODGERS, Beaver Dam, Ky. 111f

Smith—Casebier.

Mr. Jesse T. Casebier, Hartford, and Miss Leonis Smith, were married at the bride's home, Hartford, Route 5, last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Fuqua performing the ceremony. These are both popular young people who have the best wishes of their many friends.

Elegant Entertainment.

Rockport, Ky., March 22.—Mrs. Jas. L. Hosick, on the evening of March 20, entertained a number of friends at her hospitable home as only Mrs. Hosick can. The house was lighted with candles and everything looked inviting.

After a nice musical program, refreshments were served in the dining room and were enjoyed by all. Mrs. Hosick entertains charmingly and her friends look forward with pleasant anticipation to her musical evenings.

There were about thirty present and all reported a good time.

Just received two carloads of Jones Brand of Fertilizer. Have any analysis you may call for. Will sell on same terms we have always sold on. Your patronage solicited. W. E. ELLIS & BRO.,
1014 The Produce Men.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

E. P. Pharis, Arnold, to Myrtle Marshall, Arnold.

Harlan Alford, Williams Mines, to Ellen James, Williams Mines.

J. T. Casebier, Hartford, to Leonis Smith, Hartford, Route 5.

DEATH OF MRS. DR. T. D. RENFROW AT LIVERMORE

Mrs. Dr. T. D. Renfrow died March 17, 1915, at her home in Livermore, Ky., after an illness of more than two years, from tuberculosis. Her remains were brought to Dundee, Ky., and after beautiful and impressive funeral services by Rev. Vanhoy, of the M. E. Church, were interred at Sand Hill, Sulphur Springs, Ky., amid a throng of sorrowing relatives and friends. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Stephens and Vandruft, of Livermore; Romney Renfrow, Byron F. Bean, Edward Renfrow and Harry Wedding, of Dundee. She leaves a husband, one son and one daughter, Willard Herman and Helen Thomas, aged 17 and 9 years, respectively, also three sisters, Mesdames Frank Armstutz, New Altmos, Ill.; Fred Lindner, Percy, Ill., and Joe Kellerman, Pinkneyville, Ill., and two brothers, Messrs. John and Charles Miller, Pinkneyville, Ill., and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Renfrow (nee Miss Carolina Miller) was born near Pinkneyville, Ill., June 16, 1878, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, diligent, well-to-do Illinois people. She was married and came to Kentucky the beautiful, happy bride of Dr. T. D. Renfrow, March 17, 1896. It can truthfully be said that "to know her was to love her," for she was one of God's purest, sweetest, noblest christian characters, and lived a life of absolute devotion to her Saviour, her family and her friends.

A GOOD STOCK FOOD

That is relished by horses, cattle, hogs and sheep is our common corn. It is especially rich in those elements which go to make flesh and produce heat. We can always furnish a good quality of feed corn AT THE LOWEST MARKET PRICES.

Should you want to buy or sell corn we can serve you well. See us.

W. E. ELLIS & BRO.,
THE PRODUCE MERCHANTS
HARTFORD, KY.

NEW MILLINERY LATEST STYLES

Hats trimmed to suit your individual tastes. We want your trade and must have it to succeed. Let us show you—give us a call.

Miss Poppie Nall,
Hartford, Ky.

For classy job printing—The Herald

WANTED!

2 Cars Live Poultry

Will Pay the Following Cash Prices at
Beaver Dam, Ky.

3 DAYS ONLY
Wednesday, Thursday and Friday,
March 24, 25 and 26, 1915.

Don't Forget the Dates to Come.

Hens 13c lb. Ducks 13c lb.
Turkeys 11c lb. Cocks 6c lb.

All poultry must be reasonably free from feed, not stuffed. This will be the high price of the Season, owing to the conditions of the Eastern markets.

Come early and avoid the rush and get the Cash for your poultry at the cars.

T. W. WALLACE, Receiver.

SPECIAL SALE ON WIRE FENCING.

Note following prices on No. 9 Top and Bottom Bar, No. 11 Line and Stay Wires, Stays 12 inches apart.

26-inch Fence.....@ 18c per rod
32-inch Fence.....@ 20c per rod
39-inch Fence.....@ 23c per rod
47-inch Fence.....@ 25c per rod
55-inch Fence.....@ 30c per rod

Freight paid.
Better order at once while this offer is open.

Fordsville Planing Mill Co.
INCORPORATED
JAKE WILSON, Mgr. FORDSVILLE, KY.

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL POINTS

Ladies Suits and Skirts.
HUB CLOTHING CO.
For Sale—Two brood mares.
DR. L. B. BEAN, Hartford.
For Sale—A good work mule.
U. S. CARSON, Grocer.
121f
Crossett Shoes and Slippers.
HUB CLOTHING CO.

1915 Wall Paper at Ohio County Drug Co.

"There's a Photographer" in SCHROETER.

Ladies, call on Mrs. W. C. Smith, Centertown, for Millinery.

Mr. Wm. Hamilton, McHenry, spent Monday in Hartford.

See Acton Bros. for your Seed Potatoes and Garden Seeds.

American Wire Fence—none better—call on U. S. Carson, Hartford.

See our all-Wool Suits made by A. B. Kirschbaum & Co.

HUB CLOTHING CO.

For all kinds of Woven Wire Fencing, call on Acton Bros., Hartford, Ky.

For Bran, Shipstuff, Feed and Seed Oats call on Acton Bros., Hartford, Ky.

Wall Paper, Paints, Varnishes and all kinds of Stains, at Ohio County Drug Co.

Make your rooms look beautiful by getting your Paints, Varnishes, etc., at Ohio County Drug Co.

OLD PAPERS FOR SALE at The Herald office. Nice and clean, tied up in bundles. Large bundle, 5c. 1f

Mr. W. N. King, of Arkansas, was the guest of his cousin, Mr. John King, city, a few days last week.

For the latest in Millinery, ladies are invited to call on Mrs. W. C. Smith, at her residence, Centertown.

Rev. B. W. Napier was called to Spottsville Wednesday by telegram announcing the serious illness of his uncle.

If you have any poultry for sale, it will pay you to read T. W. Wallace's advertisement found on this page.

Messrs. S. J. Tichenor and Andrew Thorpe, McHenry, spent a few hours in Hartford yesterday afternoon.

Manhattan Shirts.

HUB CLOTHING CO.

Misses Maude Maddox and Mabel Murray, Beaver Dam, spent the week-end with Mrs. W. C. Blankenship, city.

Mrs. M. E. Kinsey, (formerly Miss Ethel Martin) and baby, of Hodgenville, are the guests of relatives and friends in Hartford.

Mr. Armistead Jones has moved from Nelson, Muhlenberg county, to Rockport, this county, where he will reside in the future.

Mrs. W. C. Smith, Centertown, invites the ladies to call at her residence and see her new stock of millinery. Prices very moderate.

Mr. J. D. Williams, senior member of the well known firm of Williams & Miller, Beaver Dam, spent a few hours in Hartford Monday morning.

For anything in the grocery line call on R. L. Dever & Co. They also handle White Seed and Feed Oats, Seed and eating Potatoes at right prices. 1014

For Flour, Feed and Shipstuff, Lard, Groceries, Fresh and Cured Meats, Garden Seeds, including eating and Seed Potatoes, call on O. T. O'BANNON. 1014

Hats trimmed to order in the latest designs at the most moderate prices. Please call at my residence and let me show you.

Mrs. W. C. Smith, Centertown.

Don't fail to read E. P. Barnes & Bro.'s spring opening advertisement found on page 8. After reading it, go and inspect the many bargains to be found there.

Mrs. T. A. Taylor, of Stanford, Ill., who had been spending the past three weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williams, Beaver Dam, returned home Monday.

The entertainment and homecoming given by Section Three at the Methodist church last Friday night was well attended and very enjoyable. The ladies netted a neat sum for their treasury.

The advertisement of George Mischel & Sons, Owensboro, the well known producers of fine Monuments, at right prices, will be found in this issue of The Herald. Any one needing monumental work will do well to get their prices before purchasing elsewhere. Best equipped monumental works in Western Kentucky.

The Hartford Herald

Illinois Central Railroad—Time Table at Beaver Dam, Ky.
 North Bound. South Bound.
 No. 132—5:05 a.m. No. 121—11:00 a.m.
 No. 122—12:29 p.m. No. 101—2:46 p.m.
 No. 102—3:31 p.m. No. 131—9:00 p.m.
 J. E. Williams, Agt.

DEFENDS PROHIBITION AS THE PROPER THING

And Enters Plea In Behalf Of Restraint Of Man's Evil Passions.

Hartford, Ky., R. 6, March 17.
 Editors Herald:—In a recent issue of The Herald is an article by "A Democrat Teetotaler," which, carried to its logical conclusion, means that the individual, under the "personal liberty" of his "individualism," has the right to do "any old thing," no matter how it affects his neighbors or society. This kind of democracy is license and liberty of the individual to practice anything he wants to, subject to no control but his own "self-rule," and his own self-government, which, like the beasts of the jungle, leaves everyone at liberty (?) to do as he pleases regardless of consequences to mankind.

Society, presumably, has for its highest mission, the protection of the weak from the strong, the greatest good to the greatest number, the conservation of social justice and morality, and the protection of its individual members from evil conditions, economic and industrial, and from the environments of the slums, the liquor traffic, the white slave traffic, and the degenerating influences of poverty, ignorance and social misery.

The stream cannot rise above its source. If the fountain head is impure, the whole stream is defiled.

Where individuals have a "free hand" to drink whiskey, "cuss" and fight, the moral stamina of the community is lowered, and children growing up under bad example and depraved and immoral environment, become depraved and immoral. Moreover, society can never rise above its lowest substratum. And, if society tolerates the saloon, the "red light district," the "gambling hell," and all the devices of individualism and capitalism, and gives rein to that individualistic democracy, and that "personal liberty," which in the name of "self-government" permits the profit-mongers and parasites to prey upon society, then indeed is society itself at a low ebb.

Whatever deteriorates and degenerates one, deteriorates and degenerates all. We are, each and all, the products of society. In order to improve ourselves we must improve society. We cannot improve society by licensing the depraving liquor traffic. We cannot make moral people by countenancing an immoral thing. We cannot be Christian and at the same time vote to continue the manufacture and sale of the vile stuff which destroys the souls, bodies and minds of our fellow beings. We cannot be democratic when we vote for, and support and maintain that kind of individualism, which, under the guise of "personal liberty," impoverishes people, promotes ignorance, breeds degraded and immoral conditions and enriches a few to the loss and detriment of the many.

Democracy embraces all humanity, and wherever there is a bad environment, or a low moral and economic condition, rest assured there is no democracy worth the name. Democracy is nothing if not elevating to society as a whole.

Religion is pervasive, and universal in that human brotherhood which proclaims the salvation of man attained by love—love for both God and man—love which cares for every human being and which desires economic freedom for all in a grand Industrial Democracy, which, by its justice, liberty, fraternity and equality, will make possible a divine civilization.

Yours for Prohibition and Social Democracy.

WILLIAM H. CUNDIFF.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days

Your druggist will refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure any case of Itching, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days. The first application gives ease and rest. See Expert Tobacco Grower.

Mr. Jacob Rubenacker, who lives about three miles from this city, has just finished delivering his crop of tobacco to the local market. His crop amounted to 12,475 pounds, which was raised on six acres of ground and netted him the neat sum of $1,625.50. During the seven years Mr. Rubenacker has sold seven crops of tobacco on the local market that averaged from $11.16 to $26 per 100, which is a record that any farmer in the State would be proud of. Mr. Rubenacker is one of Mason county's youngest farmers and we dare say that he ranks in a class by himself as a tiller of the soil. [Maysville Independent.]

SAVE, YOUNG MAN, SAVE!

The pinch of poverty has been felt over the cotton-raising South. The European war has worked America ill.

The worst is over.

Better times are just around the corner.

But abnormal conditions have caused a contraction of business and men have lost their jobs.

Some of them were fine jobs.

They paid good money.

Yet in more than one instance the men who held them are penniless to-day.

Why?

Because they didn't save.

They were content to let every month eat up the salary of that month.

They were satisfied to live, never looking ahead of the next pay day.

Poor summer dancing grasshoppers!

The winter of their self-inflicted discontent is now full upon them.

They mocked, perhaps, the careful man who planned for old age or unexpected disaster.

He was a "cheap skate."

Now this same "cheap skate" is contentedly skating on the firm surface of his savings while they have fallen through the ice into the chill waters of penury.

Their sad plight should be a solemn warning to all young men.

To all young men it should be a reminder of the fact that few things are so uncertain as the earning capacity.

For the artisan a suddenly crippled hand may destroy it.

For the office worker a nerve-shattering, brain-battering disease may permanently impair it.

Save while you can. The lean years come in every man's life.

Studying the psychology of the saving instinct, they devise safe and sane plans that will attract the man who looks ahead.

Save, young man, save!

The man who has a $300 a month position and spends $300 a month is not as well off as the man who has a $20 a week job and saves $5 a week.

Unless you save in the summer of your youth and young manhood, the winter of your old age will be bitter cold. [Dallas Times-Herald.]

If All the World Lived in Texas.

If the entire population of the world resided in Texas, there would be only an average of 10 persons to the acre, according to figures compiled by John Adams, of Ft. Worth.

The population of the world is about 1,600,000,000. If all the inhabitants of the world lived in Texas, the density of the population would be about equal to the density of Ft. Worth's population, which is 5,440 a square mile. There are 265,780 square miles in Texas. [Dallas News.]

To the Housewife.

Madam, if your husband is like most men he expects you to look after the health of yourself and children.

Coughs and colds are the most common of the minor ailments and are most likely to lead to serious diseases. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when it has a cold.

If you will inquire into the merits of the various remedies that are recommended for coughs and colds, you will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy stands high in the estimation of people who use it. It is prompt and effectual, pleasant and safe to take, which are qualities especially to be desired when a medicine is intended for children.

For sale by all dealers.

(Advertisement)

You Save $1.30.

We have entered into arrangements with the publishers so that we are enabled to offer the following attractive combination:

Hartford Herald $1.00

Everybody's Magazine $1.50

The Delineator $1.50

Total value $4.00

For cash in hand or added to renewal of Herald subscription, we will furnish the three periodicals to any address for one year for ONLY $2.70. This is an exceptional offer and will not last long.

For classy job printing—The Herald

If You Are Losing Weight and your nerves are in bad condition, we recommend

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion

containing Hypophosphites

a food and nerve tonic prescription.

James H. Williams.

THE LATEST DIRECTORY OF GREATER NEW YORK

Offers a Strange Diversity in Names—Population of 5,
333,547 Indicated.

New York, March 19.—New York's new city directory for 1915 is out. The book lists 1,104,676 names of individuals and gives the population of Greater New York as 5,333,547.

The new directory has added materially to the name diversity. For instance, it has Edna Honey, Mercy Plum, Josephine Pretty, Jessie Sugar, Gladys Cherry, Emma Jewel, Amelia Sweet, Cecilia Syrop and Angela Molassi.

The Love girls now include Agnes, two Bessies, Effie, Ella, Florence, Helen, Isabelle, Julia, Margaret, Marion, Marjorie, four Marys and a Minnie.

There is a Jeanette Jack and Fanny Gill, not to mention two Jack Horners and a couple of Dudes running an employment office.

In the lower East Side, below Fourteenth street, which the directory says is the most populous area in the world, with as many persons as Delaware, Nevada, Arizona and Alaska, are 138 Perlmutteres—one of them Maurice—and 14 Potashes, but not one Abe.

It is getting so persons avoid popular names. There are five Does, without one John, and 93 Roes and no Richard. Nine Chicks are included, but only one Chicken. His name is George, a chemist.

There are 12 George Washingtons, 36 John Adams, 2 John Quincy Adams, 5 Thomas Jeffersons and one Abraham Lincoln, a paymaster.

BILL'S IN TROUBLE.

At the request of many subscribers we publish the following poem which appeared originally in the Denver News:

I've got a letter, parson, from my son away out West.

An' my ol' heart is heavy as an anvil in my breast.

To think the boy whose future I had once so proudly planned

Should wander from the path o' right an' come to sich an end!

I told him when he left us, only three short years ago,

He'd find himself a-plovin' in a mighty crooked row—

He'd miss his father's counsel, an' his mother's prayers, too,

But he said the farm was hateful, an' he guessed he'd have to go.

I know that's big temptation for a youngster in the West.

But I believed our Billy had the courage to resist;

An' when he left I warned him o' the ever-waiting snares,

That lie like hidden serpents in life's pathway everywhere.

But Billy he promised faithful to be keeful, an' allowed

He'd build a reputation that'd make us mighty proud;

But it seems as if my counsel sort o' faded from his mind,

And now the boy's in trouble of the very wustest kind.

His letters come so seldom that I somehow sort o' know'd

That Billy was a-trampin' on a mighty rocky road.

But never once imagined he would bow my head in shame

An' in the dust'd waller his ol' daddy's honored name.

He writes from out in Denver, an' the story's mighty short—

I just can't tell his mother, it'd break her poor ol' heart;

An' so I reckoned, parson, you might break the news to her—

Bill's in the Legislature; but he doesn't say what fur.

THE USE OF COFFEE IS CONSTANTLY INCREASING

Interesting figures with regard to the production and consumption of coffee are contained in a booklet just published by the National Coffee Roasters Association.

An old-time market report is quoted as follows: "The imports of coffee during the past week—2 tierces, 1 barrel and 715 bags."

The above compares with average weekly imports of over 138,000 bags of coffee during the month of December, 1913.

Consumption of coffee in the United States is found to have increased from 2.98 pounds per year for each person in 1830, to an estimated 10.31 pounds per person in 1914. The yearly consumption for each person, averaged by periods of twenty years, and compiled from reports of the United States Department of Commerce shows: 1854-1873, 5.786 pounds; 1874-1893, 8.118 pounds; 1894-1913, 10.256 pounds.

The production of coffee in the crop year 1913-1914 is estimated at over 18,000,000 bags, as compared with a production of 16,373,000 bags in the crop year 1912-1913.

The booklet concludes: "Thus it is shown that coffee drinking by the people of the United States has increased with the increasing greatness of the country, and that coffee is more and more universally beloved as the indispensable national beverage of a strong nation."

WHICH PRAYERS REACH THE ANSWERING EAR?

"More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of." But when there is an uncompromising clash of interests in the supplication, how is the world to know which supplicant has the right to expect an answer? The anti-suffragists are indignant that the Chaplain of the House of Representatives should have prayed for the success of suffrage, and they besieged the Chaplain of the Senate to invoke Divine aid on their behalf, to offset the supplications in the lower chamber.

Germany and Austria believe that victory will crown their arms because they have invoked the assistance of the Almighty; England, Belgium and Russia have made an equally urgent claim upon supernatural resources. During the Civil War as many sincere prayers arose from the South as from the North and each side besought the favor of heaven. Perhaps the nearest approach to a solution of the problem involved is found in the saying of Lincoln, that he was "more anxious to be sure of being on God's side than that God should be on his side." [Philadelphia Ledger.]

RULE FOR LONGEVITY —BE CAREFUL OF DIET

It has been noticed that there is a heavy mortality, comparatively speaking, between the ages of 45 and 65 in the United States, especially among business and professional men. And theories to account for this state of affairs are advanced by thoughtful and scientific persons in such bewildering profusion that to even attempt the consideration of any considerable number of them is to court apopleptic perils.

No one philosophy, no one dietary, no one rule will fit all cases, being unworkable in individual cases for special reasons. Individuals go crashing ahead toward sudden death by the indigestion route while grasping at cureless cures. It is a puzzling condition, to be sure. Yet the solution of the problem lies in every instance with the individual. At and after the fortieth year the necessity for careful regulation of habits and diets admits of no argument. But that "what is one man's meat is another's poison" remains true. Each must determine for himself—or herself—what habits and, what articles of diet are least injurious, most beneficial, and cling to them, discarding everything else. He who would live long and comfortably must learn to be exceedingly kind to his stomach after his fortieth year. [Detroit Free Press.]

HOW THEY SPLIT POLAND —A DETERMINED STAND

The first partition of Poland was actively commenced 142 years ago, under the terms of a compact between Frederick the Great of Prussia and Catherine of Russia, in which Austria was invited to take part. About one-third of Poland was seized on this occasion. The second partition, in 1793, and the third, in 1795, practically completed the dismemberment of the ancient kingdom, and after the congress at Vienna, a century ago, nothing was left of Poland but a memory. Before the first partition the kingdom stretched from the Carpathians to the Baltic, a distance of 600 miles. It is to these original lines that the Czar has promised to restore Poland after the conclusion of the present war. During the last century Germany, Austria and Russia alike have sought to stamp out the language, literature and national spirit of the Poles, but with little success. The attempt to force school children to adopt the German tongue has resulted in many "strikes" of the pupils, and the Poles have been so determined in their attitude that all the Governments involved have been forced to make compromises. [Chicago Journal.]

Maybe you also have noticed that when a man gets real sick he quits chaffing the doctors, and when he gets worse he begins to admire preachers.

There Is No Question

but that indigestion and the distressed feeling which always goes with it can be promptly relieved by taking a

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablet

before and after each meal. 25c a box.

James H. Williams.

POEMS YOU'LL ENJOY.

The Herald's Special Selections

THE WATER MILL.

Listen to the water mill,
Through the live-long day,
How the clanking of the wheel
Wears the hours away.
Languidly the autumn wind
Stirs the greenwood leaves;
From the fields the reapers sing,
Binding up the sheaves;
And a proverb haunts my mind,
As a spell is cast—
"The mill will never grind
With the water that has passed."

Take the lesson to thyself,
Living heart and true
Golden years are fleeting by,
Youth is passing, too;
Learn to make the most of life,
Lose no happy day;
Time will never bring thee back
Chances swept away.
Leave no tender word unsaid,
Love, while life shall last—
"The mill will never grind
With the water that has passed."

Work while yet the daylight shines,
Man of strength and will;
Never does the streamlet glide
Useless by the mill.
Wait not till to-morrow's sun
Beams upon the way;
All that thou canst call thine own
Lies in thy to-day:
Power, intellect and health
May not, cannot last—
"The mill will never grind
With the water that has passed."

Oh, the wasted hours of life
That have drifted by;
Oh, the good we might have done,
Lost without a sigh;
Love that we might once have saved
By a single word;
Thoughts conceived, but never penned,
Perishing unheard.
Take the proverb to thine heart,
Take! Oh, hold it fast!
"The mill will never grind
With the water that has passed."
—[Author Unknown.]

THE COSSACK.

Tolstoy, who knew the Cossack, describes him in his novel, "The Cossack," as follows: "He looks upon a woman as the instrument of his well-being. As long as she is unmarried she is allowed to make merry; but once a wife she must put aside the pleasures of youth and add to his comfort. He is thoroughly Oriental in his demand upon her obedience and toil. As a result of this state of things, the women, though to all appearances in subjection, become powerfully developed, both physically and morally, and, as is commonly the case in the East, possess incomparably more influence and consequence in domestic affairs than in the West. The Cossack, who in the presence of strangers regards it unbecoming to talk affectionately or gossip with his wife, cannot help feeling her superiority when he is left alone with her."

The Cossack at home is good-natured, fond of his children, devoted to his horse, his intimate knowledge of that animal seeming to make the best horseman in Europe. The novelist Gogol speaks of him in high terms for his faithfulness to a comrade in arms; "The Cossack's first duty and first glory," says Gogol, "is to fulfill the duty of comradeship. Long as I have lived in the world, gentlemen brothers, I never happened to hear that a Cossack ever left his comrade, or betrayed him in any emergency." [Indianapolis News.]

For classy job printing—The Herald

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars

Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

CHILDREN'S COLDS TREATED EXTERNALLY

Don't dose the little stomachs with injurious medicines

VICK'S Croup and Pneumonia SALVE is applied externally to the throat as chest; the body heat relaxes soothing antiseptic vapors which are inhaled directly to the affected parts. Relief almost immediate. The worst cold cured overnight—croup in 15 minutes. At all druggists, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Liberal sample mailed on request. V. Chemical Co., Greensboro, N. C.

Bronchial Coughs

The prostrating cough tears down your strength.

The clogged air-tubes directly affect your lungs and speedily lead to pleurisy, pneumonia, consumption.

SCOTT'S EMULSION overcomes bronchitis in an easy, natural way. Its curative OIL-FOOD soothes the inflamed membranes, relieves the cold that causes the trouble, and every drop helps to strengthen your lungs.

AN Druggists Have It
14-44 REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

PARKER'S HAIR BALM

Groom and beautify the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Prevents hair falling. 50c and $1.00 at Druggists.

Neuralgia

There is no need to suffer the annoying, excruciating pain of neuralgia; Sloan's Liniment laid on gently will soothe the aching head like magic. Don't delay. Try it at once.

Hear What Others Say
"I have been a sufferer with Neuralgia for several years and have tried different Liniments, but Sloan's Liniment is the best I have used for Neuralgia on earth. I have tried it successfully; it has never failed."—F. H. Williams, Augusta, Ark.
Mrs. Ruth C. Claypool, Independence, Mo., writes: "A friend of ours told us about your Liniment. We have been using it for 13 years and think there is nothing like it. We use it on everything, aches, cuts, burns, bruises, sore throat, headaches and on everything else. We can't get along without it. We think it is the best Liniment made."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is the best remedy for rheumatism, backache, sore throat and sprains.

At all dealers, 25c.

Send four cents in stamps for a TRIAL BOTTLE

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Inc.

Dept. B. Philadelphia, Pa.

The High-Bred Trotting Stallion

ROBERT RULER

Will make the season of 1915 at Dr. Bean's stable, Hartford, Ky. Service fee $10.00 to insure mare with foal. Not responsible for accidents. Robert Ruler is three years old, coal black, 15 1/2 hands high, is a beautiful high-bred horse and a descendant of the famous Kentucky Ruler. Robert Ruler was sired by Major Black, registered. First dam Kitten Ruler, registered.

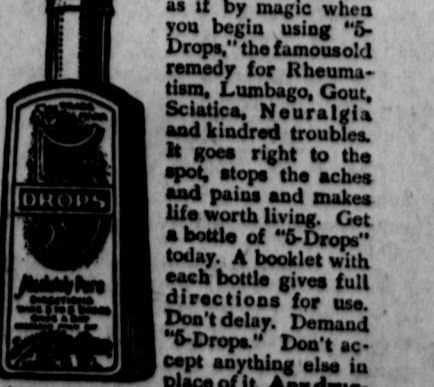

DR. L. B. BEAN,

Hartford, Ky.

RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS GIVEN QUICK RELIEF

Pain leaves almost as if by magic when you begin using "5-Drops," the famous old remedy for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gout, Sciatica, Neuralgia and kindred troubles. It goes right to the spot, stops the aches and pains and makes life worth living. Get a bottle of "5-Drops" today. A booklet with each bottle gives full directions for use. Don't delay. Demand "5-Drops." Don't accept anything else in its place.

Get one supply now. If you live too far from a drug store send One Dollar to Swanson Rheumatic Cure Co., Newark, Ohio, and a bottle of "5-Drops" will be sent prepaid.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALES.

Ohio Circuit Court, Kentucky.
Florence Alford, Plaintiff,
vs.
Ex Parte, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the February term, 1915, in the above cause for the purpose of dividing the proceeds amongst the parties as their interests appear, after paying the costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee, herein, I will offer for sale by public auction at the court house door in Hartford, on Monday, the 5th day of April, 1915, about 1 o'clock p. m., upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described property, to-wit:

A tract of land in Ohio county, Kentucky, bounded as follows:

Beginning at a stone on the Cromwell and Leitchfield road in V. B. Rains' line; thence N. 61 1/2 W. with said line to a sugar tree and hickory, both now down, now a white oak and dogwood, marked as corner; thence S. 19 W. 140 poles to two white oaks, hickory and black oak; thence S. 57 E. 46 poles to a stone on the side of the Cromwell and Leitchfield road; thence with said road N. 72 1/2 E. 46 poles; thence with same N. 48 E. 45 poles to a stone on a small drain, also corner to Simson; thence with said road to the beginning. Being all of the land North of the Cromwell and Leitchfield road in a survey of land conveyed by John P. Barrett, Master Commissioner, to P. H. Alford, recorded in Commissioner's Deed Book "C", page 422 and 423, Ohio County Court Clerk's office.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This 15th day of March, 1915.

E. E. BIRKHEAD,
Master Commissioner.
Likens & Crowe, Attorneys.

Master Commissioner's Sale.

Ohio Circuit Court, Kentucky.
I. N. Lanham, Plaintiff,
vs.
W. G. Kirk, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the February term, 1915, in the above cause for the purpose of dividing the proceeds amongst the parties in interest as their interests may appear, after paying the costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee herein, I will offer for sale by public auction at the court house door in Hartford, on Monday, the 5th day of April, 1915, about one o'clock p. m., upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described property, to-wit:

A tract of land in Ohio county, Kentucky, bounded as follows:

Beginning at a hickory, corner to sam Royal's tract; thence with his line N. 40 W. 100 poles to a large white oak, said Royal's corner; thence with another of his lines N. 28 E. 10 poles to a large black oak, near cemetery; thence N. 51 E. 75 poles to a large beech, S. E. corner to Harrison Westerfield's tract; thence N. 66 E. 70 poles to a stake; thence N. 24 E. 38 poles to a stake on Hartford and Hawesville road; thence N. 89 E. 83-5 poles to an ash and walnut on south side of said road; thence S. 75 E. 17 poles to a stone; the head of a hollow; thence down the same S. 39 E. 40 poles to a gum at the intersection of streamlets; thence down streamlet S. 21 W. 8 poles to two white oaks; thence N. 88 E. 16 1/2 poles to a stone, Foster Reynold's N. W. cor-

MOTHERS OF DELICATE CHILDREN

Should Read the Following Letter—Mrs. Slack's Story About Her Child's Recovery Is Entirely Reliable.

Palmyra, Pa.—"Three years ago my little girl had black measles which left her with a chronic cough and so awfully thin you could count all her ribs, and she coughed so much she had no appetite.

"Nothing we gave her seemed to help her at all until one day Mrs. Nebert told me how much good Vinol had done her little girl, so I decided to try it for my little one, and it has done her so much good she is hungry all the time, her cough is gone, she is stouter and more healthy in color and this is the first winter she has been able to play out in the snow, coasting and snow-balling without any ill effects."—Mrs. ALFRED SLACK, Palmyra, Pa.

We know Vinol will build up your little ones and make them healthy, strong and robust, therefore we ask parents of every frail and sickly child in this vicinity to try a bottle of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil.

If we can induce you to try a bottle of Vinol as a body-builder and strength-creator for your child, and you do not find it is all we claim, we will return your money on demand.

JAMES H. WILKINS, Druggist.

ner; thence with his line S. 2 W. 82 1/2 poles to stone on a steep hillside in Hamilton Ford and Fordsville road; thence with the road N. 88 W. 64 poles to a beech and white oak; thence S. 2 W. 19 poles to center of a branch; thence up same N. 64 W. 34 poles, S. 60 W. 18 poles, S. 38 W. 40 poles to an elm and sassafras near the head of a hollow; thence S. 18 W. 33 poles to the beginning, containing approximately one hundred and ten acres, all of which we allotted as homestead and dower to defendant in this action.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This 15th day of March, 1915.
E. E. BIRKHEAD,
Master Commissioner.
Heavrin & Kirk, Attorneys.

Master Commissioner's Sale.
Ohio Circuit Court, Kentucky.
Floyd Ament, Plaintiff,
vs.

Joe Morris, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the February term, 1915, in the above cause for the sum of $75.00, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from the 14th day of December, 1912, until paid, and costs herein, I will offer for sale by public auction at the court house door in Hartford, on Monday, the 5th day of April, 1915, about 1 o'clock p. m., upon a credit of three and six months, the following described property, to-wit:

A lot or parcel of land lying in Ohio county, in the State of Kentucky, and bounded as follows:

Beginning at a white oak on the bank of a branch; thence northeasterly to a beech and stone in J. W. Brown's line; thence westerly to Burden's corner; thence southerly to the beginning.

Also another parcel of land, lying in Ohio county and State of Kentucky, and bounded as follows: Beginning at Ford's corner, with the same to Brown's line; thence with Brown's line to Brady's corner; thence with Brady's line to Ford's corner; thence with Ford's line to the beginning, containing 9 acres, more or less, or sufficient thereof to produce the sums of money ordered to be made.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This 15th day of March, 1915.
E. E. BIRKHEAD,
Master Commissioner.
Ernest Woodward, Attorney.

Master Commissioner's Sale.
Ohio Circuit Court, Kentucky.
Ernest Rhoads, Guardian, &c., Plaintiff,
vs.

Lillie V. Markwell Rhoads, &c., Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the February term, 1915, in the above cause for the purpose of reinvesting the funds said reinvestment to be made under order of this Court by the Master Commissioner thereof, after paying the costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee herein, I will offer for sale by public auction at the court house door in Hartford, on Monday, the 5th day of April, 1915, about 1 o'clock p. m., upon the terms of one-fourth cash, and the balance in three equal installments, payable in three, six and nine months, bearing 6 per cent interest from date of sale until paid. A lien is retained on land to further secure the deferred payments.

A certain tract or parcel of land in Ohio county, Kentucky, on the waters of Green river, bounded as follows:

Beginning at a stone white oak and elm tree on the Phillips and Lewis line; thence North 300 poles to a stone, beech and walnut; thence East 53 1-3 poles to a stone; thence South 300 poles to a stone in the line of the Phillips and Lewis survey; thence North with said line 53 1/2 poles to the beginning, containing 100 acres, more or less; conveyed to J. E. Markwell by the heirs of Aaron B. Tichenor, deed dated 8th day of July, 1905, recorded in Ohio County Clerk's office, Deed Book 31, page 101.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This 15th day of March, 1915.
E. E. BIRKHEAD,
Master Commissioner.
Ernest Woodward, Attorney.

Began Working Early.

A woman was testifying in behalf of her son and swore that, "he had worked on a farm ever since he was born." The lawyer who cross-examined her said, "You are certain that your son has worked on a farm ever since he was born?" "I am," "What did he do the first year?" "He milked."

There are varying standards, but as a rule it may be said that a lady is too décolleté when it makes a baby cry.

FIVE THOUSAND HEAR COOPER

Exhibited Watch Valued at $3,500 Given Him by Grateful Father.

Lexington, March 22.—It is estimated that five thousand Lexington people heard L. T. Cooper, the man who created such widespread attention in the East, one evening recently. Cooper explained to the vast crowd his theories on health and hygiene, accompanied by a unique demonstration of his celebrated preparation Tanlac, which he is personally introducing in the larger American cities.

In connection with his visit to Kentucky, Cooper said: "I shall remain in Kentucky for only a short time. However, I shall give the people of this section of the country the same benefits of my study and my medicine that I have given the multitudes of New York, where I have been busy during the past year helping the hundreds of thousands of suffering humans in that great city.

"While here I will prove to every one how easy it is to guard against the inroads of ill-health by guarding your health as carefully as you do some other features of your daily lives.

"Catarrhal affections of the head, nose, throat and stomach, as well as the kidneys, produce a stuffed-up condition of the vital organs, and nine times out of ten this trouble is responsible for most of the ill-health of we present day Americans. Faulty methods of living are back of this all, but it is never too late to correct our faults.

"Tanlac, the wonderful medicine that I am introducing to correct this condition, I believe to be the best thing of the kind on the American market to-day. This fact has been proven throughout the great Eastern cities, as well as right here in Lexington, where hundreds of people are already realizing the surprising results from its use.

"They all testify that Tanlac has a peculiarly grateful effect, seems to go right to the desired spot, warms up the entire system, and gives great strength and development where it is most needed—correcting all of the ills and weaknesses which come from years of misuse of the vital and digestive organs."

Cooper then exhibited a handsome engraved gold watch, studded with forty-seven perfectly cut diamonds, which is valued at $3,500, that was given to him as a token of appreciation by a prominent jeweler, whose son was relieved by Tanlac.

The celebrated Tanlac is sold exclusively in Hartford by the Ohio County Drug Co., also by Z. Wilbur Mitchell, Beaver Dam, Ky.—[Advertisement.]

BIG CLUBBING OFFER.

Below we submit the greatest clubbing offer we have ever made in connection with The Herald:

Hartford Herald 1 year.....	$1.00
Boys' Magazine, monthly.....	1.00
Ch. Weekly Enquirer 1 yr.....	1.00
To-Day's Magazine, mo.....	.50
Farm & Fireside, semi-mo.....	.50
Poultry Pointers, monthly.....	.25
Total.....	$4.25

We will send the whole bunch, one year each, to any address for only $1.65. Did you ever hear of the like? Subscribe NOW. Address The Herald, Hartford, Ky.

(Advertisement.)

Are You Rheumatic?—Try Sloan's.

If you want quick and real relief from rheumatism, do what so many thousand other people are doing—whenever an attack comes on, bathe the sore muscle or joint with Sloan's Liniment. No need to rub it in—just apply the Liniment to the surface. It is wonderfully penetrating. It goes right to the seat of trouble and draws the pain almost immediately. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25c of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, lumbago, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief. (Advertisement.)

HOW TO PREVENT CALF FROM GROWING HORNS

The following is taken from the current issue of Farm and Fireside: "Horns were useful to cattle when they had to fight for their existence, but domestic cattle do not need them. Like a man carrying a weapon, the creature with horns is likely to be uppish and contentious. Hence, deborning should be the universal rule, unless the cattle are intended for show purposes. The time to operate is when the calf is young, and the thing to use is caustic potash. Moisten the end of a stick of the caustic and rub it on the 'button' which has the intention of becoming a horn. Clip off the hair first. Care should be taken not to put on so much of the caustic as to cause it to flow off the button upon the skin. If used properly—and the operation requires no great skill—no horn will develop."

OLD ENGLISH CURE FOR FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

(From the Courier-Journal November 2, 1872.)

According to late advices the foot-and-mouth disease is now abating in England, owing to the prevalence of cool weather. It is still prevalent, however, and many new cases are occurring. According to the returns ending September 20, 1872, the number of cattle suffering from the disease was 2,722; attacked since, 6,803; dead, 96; recovering, 6,746; Sheep—number diseased at last return, 24,070; attacked since, 40,204; dead, 56; recovering, 43,961.

The disease may yet become an epidemic in the United States. A correspondent of the London Times gives the following as a cure:

"One ounce of chlorate of potash dissolved in one quart of water, adding eight drams of camphorated spirits of wine when about to administer the dose. This is to be continued for three days, and half the quantity used for sheep and calves for the same period."

In the cases which the correspondent observed it to be effectual the mouths of the animals had previously been cleansed by an application of a solution of alum and tincture of myrrh. For a time, he tells us, "The animals could eat nothing, but were very thirsty and as a substitute for water, or in addition to it, he put into a tub ground linseed and toppings, pouring upon it boiling water, and letting it stand for an hour or two, and then filling up with water, making all together about ninety or 100 gallons of nourishing gruel. The animals drank this with great avidity in less than twenty-four hours; and on the following Wednesday they fed freely upon cut cabbage and lucerne mixed with meal, malcombs and chaff. On Friday their mouths were clean, and no lameness followed which required attention. The medicine was given for four successive days."

Death of Mrs. Cora Harrison.

Hillman, Ark., March 17, 1915.
It is with sad hearts and much regret that we announce the death and burial of Mrs. Cora Harrison, wife of Mr. Al Harrison, who died at her home in Penrose, Ark., March 15, 1915, and was buried the following day at Hunter, Ark. She leaves a husband, five sons and a host of friends to mourn her departure. She was of a loving disposition and during her illness she prayed many sweet prayers for her husband and sons. She was a good christian woman and a member of the Baptist church.

TWO FRIENDS.

No Use to Try and Wear Out Your Cold—It Will Wear You Out Instead.

Thousands keep on suffering coughs and colds through neglect and delay. Why make yourself an easy prey to serious ailments and epidemics as the result of a neglected cold? Coughs and colds sap your strength and vitality unless checked in the early stages. Dr. King's New Discovery is what you need—the first dose helps. Your head clears up, you breathe freely and you feel so much better. Buy a bottle to-day and start taking at once. (Advertisement.)

Preparing the Soil.

"I notice the young Widow Prettyman doesn't have her widow's weeds so much in evidence now."

"No; she's clearing those weeds away. I believe she sees signs of a second crop of orange blossoms."

Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure. The worst cases, no matter how long standing, are cured by the wonderful, old reliable Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves Pain and Heals at the same time. 25c, 50c, $1.00

Lexington was selected as the scene of the next Republican State convention and the date set for June 12 by the Republican State Central Committee at its meeting at the Watterson Hotel Friday afternoon, June 12 was the date set for the holding of the county conventions.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

About the only time a woman doesn't want the last word is when it comes in the form of an apology.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher
The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

OUR SCIENTIFIC Horse and Mule Collars.

We are putting in a stock of harness, breeching hames, &c., all of the best high grade goods. Any one wanting a horse or mule collar should see our scientific collars. They are made of the best grade leather, double stitched, and are made to fit. They do away with the pad and sore shoulders. They are a comfort to the beast and a pleasure to the owner.

Call on Williams & Miller,
BEAVER DAM, KY.

BEAUTIFUL SANTA CLARA

"THE VALLEY OF HEART'S DELIGHT"
pronounced by world travelers one of the most beautiful valleys in the whole world—the home of the prune and the apricot; a valley 125 square miles in area, between two protecting mountain ranges; only 35 miles from San Francisco.

HAS HOMES FOR MANY PEOPLE
This is one of California's ideal places for residence, where comfort and an income are combined in the smart tract. We have a beautifully illustrated booklet describing Santa Clara County and its opportunities. This book will be sent to you if you will send us your name and address and a two-cent stamp. Better still, send ten cents and we will send the book describing the beautiful Santa Clara Valley, a map of California and a sample copy of Sunset Magazine. Address

SUNSET MAGAZINE SERVICE BUREAU, San Francisco, Cal.
Be sure to ask for Santa Clara Book and mention this paper

SOLDIERS IN EUROPE BECOME SICK WITH KIDNEY DISEASES

Doan's Kidney Pills Are Being Supplied Free to The Suffering Men.

Any of Our Readers Can Try This Famous Remedy Without Expense. Just Send For a Trial Box.

Hardships and exposure in the cold, wet trenches is crippling thousands of warring European soldiers with kidney troubles and rheumatism.

The foreign offices of Doan's Kidney Pills are doing a good deed in giving this famous remedy free to every soldier who wants a box.

Foster-Milburn Co. of Buffalo, N. Y., makers of Doan's, state that they will be glad to send a trial of their medicine free to any reader of this paper who will write them for it.

There are many recommenders of Doan's Kidney Pills in this vicinity. Here is a list of users who have publicly endorsed Doan's:

Hartford endorsers of Doan's—Henry Hall, S. L. King, Daniel King, J. A. Baird.

Owensboro—J. H. O'Bryan, R. F. D. 4; J. C. Staples, R. F. D. 3.

Subscribes for The Hartford Herald.

Professional Cards.

BARNES & SMITH
Attorneys at Law
HARTFORD, - KENTUCKY.

Messrs. W. B. Barnes and C. E. Smith announce that they have formed a partnership for the general practice of law, except criminal and divorce cases, Mr. Smith being County Attorney, is prevented from practicing such cases. Mr. Barnes will individually accept such practice. Offices in Hartford Republic building, Hartford, Ky.

J. M. PORTER,
Attorney at Law,
BEAVER DAM, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties. Special attention given to all business entrusted to his care.

FRANK L. FELIX,
Attorney at Law,
HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals. Criminal practice and Collections a specialty. Office in the Herald building.

T. Wade Stratton Otto C. Martin,
Cromwell, Ky. Hartford, Ky.

STRATTON & MARTIN
Attorneys at Law
HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice his profession in this and adjoining counties. Collections, Commercial and Criminal Practice a Specialty. Prompt and vigorous service.

The Hartford Herald

L. H. & ST. L. R. R. TIME TABLE.

No. 115 due at Ellimitch 9:20 a. m.
No. 114 due at Ellimitch 6:15 p. m.
No. 112 Lv. Ellimitch... 3:40 p. m.
Ar. Irvington... 5:35 p. m.
Lv. Irvington... 5:45 p. m.
Ar. Louisville... 7:40 p. m.
No. 111 Lv. Louisville... 8:35 p. m.
Ar. Irvington... 10:06 p. m.
Lv. Irvington... 10:40 p. m.
Ar. Ellimitch... 1:04 p. m.

M. H. & E. R. R. TIME TABLE.

South Bound, No. 115—
Due at Hartford... 8:45 p. m.
North Bound, No. 114—
Due at Hartford... 6:15 p. m.
(Both "Mixed" Trains.)

SITUATION RESEMBLES

THAT PRIOR TO 1812 WAR

Vice President Says Now Is The
Time For U. S. To Be Peaceable.

Ogden, Utah, March 20.—Likening the present international situation to the conditions preceding the war of 1812, Thomas R. Marshall, Vice President of the United States, made a brief statement to-day while on his way to San Francisco with an official party to attend the Panama-Pacific Exposition. He said:

"Personally, I am a very peaceable man. I rather think now is the time for the entire United States to be peaceable. We now have a situation that has practically the same problems that brought on the war of 1812. It is almost a parallel case, excepting that war is more terrible than ever before. The question arises in my mind whether we as a world have actually progressed in the last 100 years when it comes to war, peace and diplomacy.

"There was a time in the West when cowboys used to come in and shoot up a town. It was much safer to stay at home than to venture onto the streets and usually the man that didn't want to get into trouble took the safe side and stayed inside of his domicile until the shooting was over. Of course, his action might affect the amount of business he was doing. The situation as to the world is just the same, only on a larger scale."

The Vice President predicted that President Wilson will be renominated by acclamation and without opposition in the next Democratic convention and that he will be re-elected.

BEAVER DAM.

March 22.—On last Friday evening the Baptist Ladies Aid gave a banquet at the pastoral home of the church in honor of Rev. A. B. Gardner and family, who will leave our town the first of April. No family ever lived in our town whose members were more highly esteemed than this family by the people of town generally. This fact was fully demonstrated by the people who were present at the banquet. Members of the Methodist, Christian and Baptist churches to the number of 125 were there with well filled baskets of ham, chicken, cakes and fruit. After a bounteous repast was served a general good time was indulged in by all present; in fact, it was a regular love-feast. Bro. Gardner and family were made to feel that in going to their new home they would leave many warm friends behind in all the churches of our town. Bro. Gardner preached Sunday to a large audience and two joined the church. Sunday evening he preached his last sermon as pastor of Beaver Dam church.

Bro. Russell, assisted by Rev. Napier, of Hartford, commenced a revival meeting at the Methodist church here last night. Prospects are fair for a good revival and ingathering, as there is plenty of material and good church workers to engage in the meeting.

Rev. Worth Wade, of Morgantown, spent Sunday in town visiting friends.

Miss Ollie, daughter of Mr. Hubert Hobdy, of Sulphur Springs, was taken to Louisville Saturday to have an operation performed. She has stomach trouble. Also Mrs. Thomas Render was taken to the same hospital for examination. The doctors here were not certain what her trouble was.

OLATON.

March 21.—It has been snowing all morning. This is pretty hard on early gardens. While meat and wheat is so high, early gardens would be a great benefit. The outlook for poultry raising was never better. The egg market is good—14 cents per dozen. An advance in the price is soon expected, as Ellis & Bro. will load a car of poultry here beginning to-day.

Miss Zelma Lyons returned from Louisville last Thursday. She came by the way of Owensboro to see her sister, Mrs. G. W. Daniel, who is in the hospital there. The operation was successful and it is thought that she will soon be able to return to her home. Miss Lyons, accompanied by her nephew, little Kenneth Daniel, went to Owensboro this morning to see her sister, Mrs. Daniels.

It is rumored here that Grayson county has let the contract for building six miles of pike on the Leitchfield and Hartford road, running to the Grayson county line, same to be completed by December 1, 1915. If the above is true, it is hoped that Ohio county will do likewise, for aside from the great benefits to be derived it would give employment to many of our citizens and make better times.

Hiram Monroe is ill of appendicitis. His physician says he is getting along nicely.

Miss Myrtle E. Canan was awarded the banner at the Sunday School to-day. She and Miss Nettie Mitchell's classes had same number of pupils, but the former's class dropped in a few more nickels than the latter and thereby won the banner. The banner has been a great help to the Sunday School here.

Mr. A. W. May has been catching some very fine fish. Mr. Brad Burden landed a six-pound cat. Old Caney creek is a good place to catch the finny tribe.

This snow is pretty hard on the frost-proof cabbage that has been set out here.

Quarterly meeting will convene here Wednesday.

I believe the majority of the Democrats around here are opposed to a convention before the primary; think it would be detrimental to some of the candidates and also a disadvantage to the party.

IMPORTANT RULES FOR CORRESPONDENTS

Here are ten rules for country correspondents. They were prepared by an experienced newspaper man. Cut them out and keep them. Then try to make your next letter to The Herald conform with all of the rules:

1. Do not abbreviate. Do not write Mr. & Mrs., but Mr. and Mrs.; not Mon. or Sat. but Monday or Saturday.

2. Leave space between lines for correction or additions.

3. Give both initials. Write "C. H. Brown" instead of "Mr. Brown" or "Mr. C. Brown."

4. Write important subjects fully. Do not dismiss the death of a well known pioneer in half a dozen words, but write something of interest concerning him. If suicide or murder, give all the details you can get.

5. Have verbs agree with subjects. Don't say Mr. and Mrs. B. "was," but Mr. and Mrs. B. "were." Mr. and Mrs. B. may be one scripturally, but they are two grammatically.

6. Don't use nicknames. Use "James Brown" instead of "Jim Brown," "Edward" instead of "Ed."

7. Give the time in an item. "Mr. Brown was in Lansing," "the house burned down," are incomplete. Tell when things happened.

8. Spell words correctly and plainly, especially names of persons.

9. Don't send articles reflecting upon the character of individuals or firms. The newspaper is not looking for libel suits; neither does it care to right your personal wrongs.

10. Write your name and town at top of page—last but most important rule of all. It is most essential that the newspaper know from whom the news is received and from what place, every time.

Important suggestion, though not a rule: Carefully look over your news after it is published and note what changes had to be made.

While the ten rules given above are important as relating to written news, yet there is one rule that supersedes them all—telephone really important news at once.

IF YOU

Want a Cook
Want a Clerk
Want a Partner
Want a Situation
Want a Hired Hand
Want to Sell a Piano
Want to Sell Your Farm
Want to Sell Town Property
Want to Sell Your Groceries
Want to Sell Your Hardware
Want Customers for Anything
Advertise Weekly in The Herald.
Advertising Is the Way to Success
Advertising Brings Customers
Advertising Keeps Customers
Advertising Insures Success
Advertising Shows Energy
Advertising Shows Pluck
Advertising Is "Biz"
Advertise or Bust
Advertise Long
Advertise Well
ADVERTISE
At Once.

Subscribe for The Herald. $1 a year.

Grand Opening OF SPRING MERCHANDISE Friday, March 26.

Special Display
Of Everything
That's New In Millinery.

We Invite You to Spend the Day
With Us, Looking at Our Showings.

E. P. BARNES & BRO.
Beaver Dam, Kentucky.

CLEAR RUN.

March 22.—Snow fell constantly at this place all day Sunday.

Mr. Hardin Hoagland, whose illness was mentioned last week, died March 14th. "Uncle Hardin," as he was called, had been in bad health for some time. He is survived by a wife and seven children. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. E. Fuqua and his remains were laid to rest in Clear Run cemetery in the presence of a host of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Mr. C. L. Hoover is on the sick list.

Mr. James Handley lost a good horse last week. This makes the third horse Mr. Handley has lost in the past two years.

There was an old-time log-rolling at Mrs. J. T. Funk's last Wednesday. Thirty hands rolled logs on twenty acres of bottom land in one day. With the assistance of twenty women and children this was an extra day's work. We can speak a word of encouragement for the younger generation when it comes to carrying a heavy load.

Mrs. Ular Henning, of Whitesville, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Hoover.

Miss Oda Raymond, of Adaburg, visited her sister, Mrs. Ira D. Funk, Friday night and was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Funk Saturday.

Miss Mary Etta Smith and Mr. Jesse Casebier, of Hartford, were married at the home of the bride Sunday afternoon by Rev. R. E. Fuqua.

Wedding bells are ringing yet.

Married in Owensboro.

The Owensboro Inquirer of Wednesday says:

Mr. Leslie Godsey and Miss Eunice Marlow, of Olaton, Ohio county, were married at the Bell hotel this morning by Rev. B. F. Jenkins. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Godsey will return to Olaton on the Illinois Central.

SMALLHOUS.

March 20.—Mrs. Mary Barnard died at her home Thursday morning about one o'clock, of stomach and bowel trouble. The funeral was conducted at the home Friday morning by Rev. H. P. Brown, after which the body was placed in Equality cemetery beside her husband who preceded her several years ago. She was a consistent member of Smallhouse Baptist church at the time of her death and was in her eightieth year.

Misses Ruth Godsey and Rhea Igleheart, Centertown, visited their homes here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ethel Withrow, Nelson, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Rob Shutt, Bevier, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. William Addington.

Masters Jim and Roy Godsey are on the sick list.

Spring term of school began here March 15, taught by Miss Ethel Hunter.

Mr. Sam Barnard, of near Madisonville, Mr. Herman Barnard, Louisville, and Mrs. Emma Nichols, of Madisonville, were at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Mary Barnard, for several days before she died.

Mrs. J. T. Withrow, commonly known as "Aunt Julia," died at her home here of bowel trouble, March 2.

Rev. R. D. Bennett, of Hartford, conducted funeral services from the home the 3d. She was a pious Christian lady and was a member of the M. E. Church for many years. She was in her eightieth year.

Mr. Luther Faught, who has been quite sick, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Sallie Drake has returned

Remedy Orderlies
Sick headache, biliousness, piles and bad breath are usually caused by inactive bowels. Get a box of Remedy Orderlies. They act gently and effectively. Sold only by us at 10 cents.
James H. Williams.

We Are Now Ready

to show you new and up-to-date goods for Easter, nappy in every respect. Come and be convinced. Men's Suits, Ladies' Suits and Skirts, the famous Swann Hats for Men, Crossett Shoes for Men. Peters Shoes and Slippers for Women and Children, and a full line of Furnishings.

Hub Clothing Co.
Hartford, Kentucky.

from South Carrollton, where she had been the guest of Mrs. Will Nichols.

Little Miss Wilma Kirtley is on the sick list.

Miss Newton, the trained nurse from Evansville, returned home Thursday. She had been nursing Mrs. Barnard.

Mr. D. A. Hill, living near here, is confined to his bed.

Nearly 2,000,000 persons attended the San Francisco exposition during the first month of its run.

It sometimes happens that a man has too many friends simply because he is his own best friend.

DR. S. C. BAIRD,
Veterinary and Dental Surgeon
HARTFORD, KY.

Located at S. E. Bennett's Stable.
Call answered day or night.

McHenry Mfg. and Machine Co.
Founders and Machinists,
McHENRY, KY.

All work quickly and accurately done.

EDWARD NELSON, Mgr.